Delivery and Resources

Classes:

1. The subject consists of a weekly 2 hour lecture and 1 hour tutorial
2. The timetable is at <https://timetables.mq.edu.au/2014/Reports/List.aspx>
3. Students must attend 80% of all tutorials to complete this unit, i.e. miss no more than 2 tutorials, including medical absences. A log will be taken to record attendance. Medical certificates are required for medical absences and should be given to your tutors.
4. You must stay in the tutorial to which you were enrolled as a cap is applied on the number of students to each tutorial in order to maximise your learning experience. However, you may change a tutorial, providing the tutorial to which you wish to change has a vacancy. The only way you can do this is via e-student within two weeks of the start of the semester. Changes cannot be made after week 2.
5. Students are expected to arrive on time, certainly before five minutes past the hour and not to leave until the class ends.
6. Mobiles should be turned off during classes, not simply set to silent. Texting or other mobile phone activity during class is distracting to the student concerned, the lecturer and other students and is strictly forbidden. Students violating this requirement will be asked to leave the class.
7. Photography as well as audio and video recording by students is not permitted.

Prizes:

A Certificate of Proficiency is awarded for this unit. Please

Required and recommended texts and/or materials

TEXTBOOK: King D and Lawley S (2013) Organizational Behaviour. Oxford: Oxford University Press

Students will be given scholarly articles as stretch readings in the lectures.

Technology used and required

- Students are required to familiarise themselves with iLearn (<https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/login/MQ/>)

- iLearn will be used to post course material, announcements, student grades and as a means of communication between staff members and students
- Students are expected to check their university email account and contact the teaching staff through it. Gmail, hotmail and other personal email accounts are often blocked through the university's spam filter; communicating through those risks that your query will not be answered.
- Tutorial presentations will require the use of Powerpoint

Unit web page

Course material will be made available on iLearn (<https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/login/MQ/>)

- This course outline, lecture slides, assessment details and other useful material will be made available from iLearn. If you have difficulties logging on to iLearn, please contact the university's technical support staff. Do not contact the lecturer or the tutors as they will not be able to help you with technical queries.
- You are expected to print copies of the lecture slides and bring them along to the lectures
- All important announcements will be made on iLearn and you are expected to view the announcements page of the course website at least once per week

Teaching and Learning Strategy

This unit comprises of four key elements: a 2-hour lecture, a 1-hour tutorial; group study and participation; individual study and participation.

The topics outlined in this unit are best explored through active participation and experiential learning. Classes therefore will involve tutorial activities such as case study analysis, debates, discussion groups and presentations so that participating in this unit is an interesting, challenging and fun experience. Core topics will be discussed in an integrated lecture environment, where you are encouraged to question and comment on aspects of each topic.

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand classical and contemporary OB theory. Topics covered include motivation, learning, culture, and teamwork.
- Understand the relevance of OB theories and concepts for modern organisations. Topics covered include ethics, rationalisation, power and politics and aesthetic labour.
- Apply OB concepts to case studies so as to appreciate the nexus between theory and practice
- Develop teamwork and presentation skills

Assessment tasks

- Essay
- Student presentations
- Final Examination

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand classical and contemporary OB theory. Topics covered include motivation, learning, culture, and teamwork.
- Understand the relevance of OB theories and concepts for modern organisations. Topics covered include ethics, rationalisation, power and politics and aesthetic labour.

- Apply OB concepts to case studies so as to appreciate the nexus between theory and practice
- Develop teamwork and presentation skills

Assessment tasks

- Essay Plan
- Essay
- Student presentations
- Final Examination

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply OB concepts to case studies so as to appreciate the nexus between theory and practice
- Develop teamwork and presentation skills

Assessment tasks

- Essay
- Student presentations
- Final Examination

Research and Practice

This unit draws on extensive research from sources outside the textbook. Students will be provided with stretch readings for every week that will allow you to considerably expand your knowledge of OB.

Such readings are for example:

Christensen CM and Raynor ME (2003) Why hard-nosed executives should care about management theory. Harvard Business Review 81(9): 66-74

Jaques E (1990) In praise of hierarchy. Harvard Business Review 68(1): 127-133

Conducting research independently is strongly encouraged for this unit and is rewarded.

This unit will give you extensive practice in applying theoretical knowledge on case studies.
