Unit description

This unit is an introduction to classical Hebrew for students who have not previously studied Biblical Hebrew. This unit provides students with an introduction to the Hebrew alphabet, and to the grammar and vocabulary of Biblical Hebrew, in preparation for the study of a number of biblical texts.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Recognise and recall ancient Hebrew script and phonetic structure

Learn Hebrew vocabulary and grammatical structures at elementary level

Recognise and memorise foundational Hebrew vocabulary

Assess the grammar required for the translation of simple Hebrew texts

Explore relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools

Recognize and recall linguistic metalanguage

Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and/or writing simple Hebrew texts

Explore the significance of Hebrew for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Synthesise elementary Hebrew reading skills

General Assessment Information

Each assessment task will be judged by the number of actual correct answers expressed as a percentage of possible correct answers.

The grades are as follow: High distinction $\geq 85\%$; Distinction $\geq 75\%$; Credit $\geq 65\%$; and Pass $\geq 50\%$

To successfully complete the unit the student will need to gain a Pass or better.

In the case of illness or misadventure which may effect the student's capacity to complete the assessment tasks in the expected timeframe, students must lodge a Disruption of Studies claim:

http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Assignments	15%	No	Continuous
Class test 1	15%	No	Week 8
Final Examination	50%	No	Examination period
Participation	20%	No	Continuous

Assignments

Due: Continuous

Weighting: 15%

Students will complete assignments based on weekly learning. These assignments will be in the form of short exercises from the course textbook.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise and recall ancient Hebrew script and phonetic structure

- Synthesise elementary Hebrew reading skills

Participation

Weighting: 20%

Students are required to make at least ONE contribution to the online wiki, and to make at least ONE response to another student's contribution (or the lecturer's). The Wiki is focused on exploring the continued cultural and scholarly relevance of Ancient Hebrew in the modern day. Recent scientific or archaeological findings that have been in the news, references to Hebrew in popular culture, or even current research on the benefits of learning a language would be appropriate topics for a student's contribution to the Wiki. The contribution can be in the form of a brief (approximately 500 words) journal entry, or a link to a YouTube video, TED talk, or recent news item. The Wiki is aimed at helping to build a learning community in the class, and also connecting what we learn in class to broader social and cultural environments. Students are required to observe good netiquette on the wiki.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Explore relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Recognize and recall linguistic metalanguage
- Explore the significance of Hebrew for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Delivery and Resources

A two hour lecture and one hour tutorial are delivered most weeks of the semester. Lectures are recorded. Students are strongly advised to attend all classes.

The iLearn site is an important resource for class discussion and accessing extra learning materials. Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone may not be sufficient. For technical support go to: http://mq.edu.au/about_us/offices_and_units/informatics/help For student quick guides on the use of iLearn go to: http://mq.edu.au/iLearn/student_info/guides.htm

The text to be used is Elementary Biblical Hebrew: An Introductory Grammar. G. Athas & I. M. Young. Fifth Edition. (Croydon Park, NSW: Ancient Vessel Press, 2016). It is available for purchase from Reformers Bookshop, and can be ordered from them online: <http://reformers.org.au/> The textbook can be posted to students from the bookstore for an additional cost.

Unit Schedule

In weeks 1-13, we will work through the first half of the course textbook. The first week is focused on learning the Hebrew script. Although this course assumes no prior knowledge, it is recommended that students work towards familiarising themselves with the Hebrew alphabet as early as possible in order to provide a firm foundation for the semester of study.

Policies and Procedures

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central. Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Assess the grammar required for the translation of simple Hebrew texts
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and/or writing simple Hebrew texts
- Explore the significance of Hebrew for the study of relevant ancient cultures
- Synthesise elementary Hebrew reading skills

Assessment tasks

- Class test 1
- Final Examination
- Participation

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement.

They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Explore relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and/or writing simple Hebrew texts
- Explore the significance of Hebrew for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Assessment tasks

- Class test 1
- Final Examination

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Recognise and recall ancient Hebrew script and phonetic structure
- Learn Hebrew vocabulary and grammatical structures at elementary level
- Recognise and memorise foundational Hebrew vocabulary
- Explore relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Recognize and recall linguistic metalanguage
- Explore the significance of Hebrew for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Assessment tasks

- Class test 1
- Participation

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Recognise and recall ancient Hebrew script and phonetic structure
- Learn Hebrew vocabulary and grammatical structures at elementary level
- Recognise and memorise foundational Hebrew vocabulary

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Recognise and recall ancient Hebrew script and phonetic structure
- Learn Hebrew vocabulary and grammatical structures at elementary level
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of simple Hebrew texts
- Explore relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Recognize and recall linguistic metalanguage

- Explore the significance of Hebrew for the study of relevant ancient cultures

- Synthesise elementary Hebrew reading skills

Assessment tasks

- Class test 1
- Final Examination
- Participation

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Learn Hebrew vocabulary and grammatical structures at elementary level
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of simple Hebrew texts
- Explore relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Recognize and recall linguistic metalanguage
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and/or writing simple Hebrew texts
- Explore the significance of Hebrew for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Assessment tasks

- Class test 1
- Final Examination

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Recognise and recall ancient Hebrew script and phonetic structure

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Explore the significance of Hebrew for the study of relevant ancient cultures
