Unit description

This unit will equip students with the ability to analyse complex business problems from the cross-functional and multi-dimensional perspective required by general managers. The unit examines the process of formulating competitive strategy at the business level based on systematic analysis of a firm's internal resources and capabilities in conjunction with a structured examination of the various dimensions of its environment. On the basis of this analysis, appropriate strategies with which to pursue sustainable competitive advantage and strategic congruence can be developed. Topics addressed include business-level and corporate-level strategy, innovation and entrepreneurship, and dynamic strategy and game theory.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. To understand the nature and scope of the strategic management process and how strategy is dependent on stakeholders and group processes and to be able to critically assess such processes based on academic research

2. To be able to evaluate an organisation, its strategy, and its environment in terms of congruence or strategic fit
3. To be able to apply the key strategic management tools and models

General Assessment Information

All students are expected to ensure that they are available from the start until the end of the teaching semester, which is the final day of the official examination period. Students are also expected to actively engage in class and to be able to find time to collaborate with group members outside of scheduled classes.

Assessment Tasks

| Name | Weighting | Hurdle | Due |
|-------------------------|-----------|--------|--------------------|
| Case Study | 60% | No | Weeks 7, 8,11 & 12 |
| Individual Essay | 40% | No | Examination period |

Case Study

Due: Weeks 7, 8,11 & 12

Weighting: 60%

The assignment will focus on a detailed case analysis and will include the application of many of the concepts covered in lectures. It will require extensive collaboration between group members. The assessment submission will be in the form of: (1) Initial individual response to specific questions relating to the case study. It will require a thorough written response to specific questions. These specific questions will be presented on iLearn. This part is assessed individually and carries 30% of the overall unit mark (50% of the Case Study). (2) a draft of the report and a plan for its completion (3) a moderate sized detailed written report and; (4) a short presentation of the key findings to the class; (5) Active participation in class discussions from week 4 through 13. In week 13, all students will have the option of submitting a peer assessment. These will be used to moderate marks within the group if group contributions have not been equal.

The assessment description and the marking criteria can be found on iLearn. The written documents are to be submitted via Turnitin, available via iLearn.

No extensions will be granted. Late tasks will be accepted up to 72 hours after the submission deadline. There will be a deduction of 10% from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Disruption of Studies is made and approved.

Research and Practice

The assignment requires students to conduct original research, which involves the collection and analysis of information from a range of sources. This unit uses research from external sources as listed in the references lists on iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- 1. To understand the nature and scope of the strategic management process and how strategy is dependent on stakeholders and group processes and to be able to critically assess such processes based on academic research
- 2. To be able to evaluate an organisation, its strategy, and its environment in terms of congruence or strategic fit
- 3. To be able to apply the key strategic management tools and models

Individual Essay

Due: Examination period

Weighting: 40%

An essay requires the systematic investigation of a topic and the development of a written argument. Essays assess cognitive and research skills. Essays are expected to develop coherent arguments, be founded on thorough research, and provide insight into the topic area. It should be minimum 1500 words and maximum 2000 words, excluding abstract, references and an annotated bibliography. It must contain an annotated bibliography where every source used is briefly summarised and evaluated. Details about academic referencing, topic etc. will be provided in class. - No extensions will be granted. Late tasks will be accepted up to 72 hours after the submission deadline. There will be a deduction of 10% from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Disruption of Studies is made and approved.

Delivery and Resources

The textbook used in this unit is: Johnson, G., Whittington, R. & Scholes, K., Angwin, D., &

Regnér, P. (2013) Exploring Strategy (10th Edition). Harlow England: Pearson Education, ISBN: 9781292002552.

Additional required readings will be available via iLearn.

A total mark of 50 or higher (out of 100) is required to complete this unit.

Technology used: iLearn (<https://ilearn.mq.edu.au>) and Macquarie University email.

Access to a personal computer is required to access iLearn; students are required to use word processing and Turnitin for submitting assignments. You will need to bring a WiFi enabled device to every class to use in student centred, problem based learning activities and for access to online analytical tools. The web page for this unit can be found at: iLearn <http://ilearn.mq.edu.au>

The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: <http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>

Learning and Teaching Activities

Active learning

This unit is taught using lectures and a combination of student presentations, video presentations and discussions. Students are expected to read prescribed text chapters before lectures, attend lectures, join in discussions and complete all assessments. Reflection is crucial to integrating unit material. Therefore active participation in discussions and exercises is of great importance not only to the participating student but to the whole class.
