Unit description

This unit aims to advance and consolidate the skills and strategies acquired in the Simultaneous Interpreting into English 1 unit. To this end, more difficult speeches and panel discussions that are delivered and carried out in professional settings will be used for intensive practice into English. Students are required to practice interpreting both with text and without text using a combination of coping strategies.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

By the end of the semester, students are expected to:

- 1) Demonstrate the enhanced skills required for simultaneous interpreting into English
- 2) Master coping strategies required for challenges inherent to simultaneous interpreting into English and manifested in different contexts
- 3) Demonstrate a systemic and on-going effort in building world knowledge needed for international, regional and inter-governmental and industry-related conferences
- 4) Critically analyze, evaluate and reflect on your LOTE-to-English simultaneous interpreting performance through individual, peer and group assessment
- 5) Show a profound understanding of simultaneous interpreting as a life-long practice which requires vigorous and systematic effort on a regular basis

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Class performance	20%	No	Every week
Mid-term Examination	30%	No	Week 7
Final Examination	50%	No	Week 14

Class performance

Due: Every week
