Unit description This unit accommodates the special skills and expertise of visitors to Macquarie Law School or accommodates a unit of study in developmental mode according to the teaching plans of the School. The unit is designed to capture particular expertise and interest of colleagues, both professional and academic. The particular subject area of the unit will change from year to year.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to insolvency.
- Interpret and transmit knowledge, skills and concepts to specialist and non-specialist audiences
- Analyse factual situations involving insolvency law and apply relevant legal principles
- Formulate, present and evaluate oral and written arguments on insolvency problems and principles, drawing upon relevant legal authority.
- Apply advanced research skills
- Assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit assessment items on time.

General Assessment Information

Detailed marking rubrics will be made available in iLearn.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Assignment	40%	No	5 pm, 3 January 2018
Final Examination (Take Home)	60%	No	3 pm, 25 January 2018

Assignment

Due: 5 pm, 3 January 2018

Weighting: 40%

The Assignment in this unit is a research paper. It will be marked out 100 and accounts for 40% of the final mark for this unit.

The question for the Assignment will be available on iLearn.

The Assignment must be a properly referenced formal response with appropriate analysis and argument supported by relevant legal authorities. The Assignment must be typed and must be kept to a maximum 1,500 words (including footnotes, but not the bibliography). The word limit will be strictly applied and work above the word limit will not be marked.

The Assignment must be submitted electronically through Turnitin. Plagiarism software is used in this unit.

In completing the Assignment, students must comply with the Australian Guide to Legal Citation, compiled by the Melbourne University Law Review. The Guide is available for download free online.

Further instructions and information in relation to the Assignment, including rubrics, will be made available on iLearn.

If, for justifiable reasons, a student is unable to submit the Assignment on time, he or she may submit an application for special consideration in accordance with the University's Disruption to Studies Policy. If special consideration is granted the student may be given a different research question to be completed at a time determined by the unit convenor.

Applications for special consideration pursuant to the Disruption to Studies Policy are made electronically via ask.mq.edu.au and should be accompanied by supporting documentation. Students should refer to the Disruption to Studies Policy for complete details and a description of the supporting documentation required.

Any Assignment that is submitted after the due date and time without an approved Disruption to Studies Application, will attract a 2% per day penalty. Any Assignment that is submitted beyond 7 days of the due date and time will not be graded and will receive a zero mark.

This assessment task relates to the following learning outcomes:

- demonstrate a thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to the law on insolvency law;
- formulate, present and evaluate oral and written arguments on insolvency problems and principles, drawing upon relevant legal authority; and
- assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit assessment items on time; and
- apply advanced research skills.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to insolvency.
- Interpret and transmit knowledge, skills and concepts to specialist and non-specialist audiences
- Apply advanced research skills
- Assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit assessment items on time.

Final Examination (Take Home)

Due: 3 pm, 25 January 2018

Weighting: 60%

The final examination in this unit will be a take home examination. It will be marked out of 100 and accounts for 60% of the final mark in this unit.

The final examination will be based on material covered in the unit, ie all topics and materials covered in the unit.

The final examination will be in the form of a number of problem style questions. All questions will have to be answered.

Students will be able to access the final examination paper on iLearn from 10 am on Thursday 25 January 2018 and must submit their answers to the final examination paper by 3 pm on Thursday 25 January 2018.

A student's answers to the final examination paper's questions cannot exceed 2,500 words (inclusive of footnotes). This is an upper word limit and a student need not write 2,500 words if he or she can answer the questions in less than 2,500 words. A bibliography is not required. The word limit will be strictly applied and work above the word limit will not be marked.

The take home examination must be submitted electronically through Turnitin. Plagiarism detection software is used in this unit.

Further instructions and information in relation to the Take Home Examination, including rubrics, will be made available on iLearn.

If, for justifiable reasons, a student is unable to do the take home examination at the above time, he or she should submit an application for special consideration in accordance with the University's Disruption to Studies Policy, which, if granted, will enable the student to complete an alternative assessment. The alternative assessment may not be in the form of a take home examination - it may take some other form such as a formal sit down examination.

Any take home examination that is submitted after the stipulated time on the due date will not be graded and will receive a zero mark.

This assessment task relates to the following learning outcomes:

- demonstrate a thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to the law on insolvency law;
- interpret and transmit knowledge, skills and concepts to specialist and non-specialist audiences
- analyse factual situations in solving insolvency law problems and applying relevant legal principles;
- formulate, present and evaluate oral and written arguments on insolvency problems and principles, drawing upon relevant legal authority; and
- assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit assessment items on time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to insolvency.
- Interpret and transmit knowledge, skills and concepts to specialist and non-specialist audiences
- Analyse factual situations involving insolvency law and apply relevant legal principles
- Formulate, present and evaluate oral and written arguments on insolvency problems and principles, drawing upon relevant legal authority.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Assessment task

- Assignment

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to insolvency.
- Interpret and transmit knowledge, skills and concepts to specialist and non-specialist audiences

- Assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit assessment items on time.

Assessment task

- Final Examination (Take Home)

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Apply advanced research skills

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to insolvency.

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to insolvency.
- Interpret and transmit knowledge, skills and concepts to specialist and non-specialist audiences
- Analyse factual situations involving insolvency law and apply relevant legal principles
- Formulate, present and evaluate oral and written arguments on insolvency problems and principles, drawing upon relevant legal authority.
- Apply advanced research skills
