Unit description

This unit examines the structure and issues relating to the legal governance regime of a business enterprise, including an in-depth analysis of the risks and governance structures relating to the law of contracts, corporations and insolvency. It offers significant opportunities for a scholarly understanding of the legal framework and issues that relate to Corporate Governance.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Analyse and comprehend the characteristics and framework of the legal system in which corporations function and in which they are governed.

Develop professional judgement in the various ways that companies are structured and how this affects the company's activities and impacts on management, insolvency and governance factors.

Critically evaluate key corporate governance and corporate social responsibility issues, in particular those that relate to the role and obligations of directors.

Analyse perspectives on corporate governance and through research critically examine governance issues.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
1. Article Analysis	30%	No	10 April 2017 (Week 7)
2. Research Assignment	50%	No	5 June 2017 (Week 13)
3. Class Test	20%	No	5 June 2017 (Week 13)

1. Article Analysis

Due: 10 April 2017 (Week 7)

Weighting: 30%

This assessment involves reading and analysing a scholarly article as allocated and thereafter submitting a 1000 word analysis of the article.

No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Disruption to Studies is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse and comprehend the characteristics and framework of the legal system in which corporations function and in which they are governed.
- Develop professional judgement in the various ways that companies are structured and how this affects the company's activities and impacts on management, insolvency and governance factors.
- Critically evaluate key corporate governance and corporate social responsibility issues, in particular those that relate to the role and obligations of directors.
- Analyse perspectives on corporate governance and through research critically examine governance issues.

2. Research Assignment

Due: 5 June 2017 (Week 13)

Weighting: 50%

Your assignment [length 3000 words] must be submitted via iLearn/Turnitin by 6pm Monday 5th June 2017. A hard-copy of the assignment must also be submitted (handed-in) in your class on 5th June 2017.

No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Disruption to Studies is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse and comprehend the characteristics and framework of the legal system in which corporations function and in which they are governed.
- Develop professional judgement in the various ways that companies are structured and how this affects the company's activities and impacts on management, insolvency and governance factors.
- Critically evaluate key corporate governance and corporate social responsibility issues, in particular those that relate to the role and obligations of directors.
- Analyse perspectives on corporate governance and through research critically examine governance issues.

3. Class Test

Due: 5 June 2017 (Week 13)

Weighting: 20%

There will be a class test administered in the final week of session (5th June in Week 13) - particulars of the test will be provided in the seminars.

No extensions will be granted. This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Disruption to Studies is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse and comprehend the characteristics and framework of the legal system in which corporations function and in which they are governed.

- Develop professional judgement in the various ways that companies are structured and how this affects the company's activities and impacts on management, insolvency and governance factors.

Changes from Previous Offering

The Unit has changed in 2017 by the inclusion of a research emphasis in the assessment format.

Research, Practice and Global Sustainability

Students are encouraged to consult different sources and search for external reading materials. This will enhance their understanding of the unit concepts and support their learning process. Examples of journals that can be consulted to follow up matters of interest in relation to corporate governance issues are: Australian Journal of Corporate Law; Company and Securities Law Journal.
