Credit points 4
Prerequisites Admission to MAnchHist or GradCertAnchHist
Corequisites
Co-badged status
Unit description The unit will examine the archaeological remains of the Egyptian Old Kingdom period from different sites and particularly those of Saqqara, Giza, Deir el-Gebrawi, Meir, El-Hammamiya, Akhmim, Abydos and Aswan, with a focus on analysing the art, architecture and material culture from funerary contexts. Special emphasis will be given to understanding the administrative system and the daily life of the Egyptians in the period. A study of the important texts of the period in the original language will be undertaken and include the biographies of Djau and Harkhuf.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Participation

Due: Weekly

Weighting: 10%

Your tutor will look for evidence that you are sufficiently well-informed to contribute to discussions on topics presented and that you are able to express the concepts from this data in verbal form.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Find, analyse and interpret primary and secondary sources and present the information in an oral format.
- Work with and respond to the views of staff and other students in the unit in an oral form.
- Actively participate in group discussion.
- Plan and revise work according to the unit schedule.

Or: Study texts in translation and write a historical analysis on the events included in these texts.
- Analyse and express your judgement about historical issues in an oral and written form.
- Interpret written and archaeological evidence with appreciation and understanding.

Tutorial Presentation & Essay

Due: Weeks 4 to 12

Weighting: 30%

In the first lecture you will be assigned one of the planned tutorial topics to present to the class in a specific session and submit in an essay format. We aim to have one student presentation per session that will last for 40-50 minutes and allow for 20 minutes of discussion and question time. Each presenter is asked to submit in the class copies of a one page written summary with a list of references used to your tutor and to each student one week before your presentation. You must submit your essay in the week following the presentation.

Length of essay: 2500 words

The tutorial presentations will start in week 4. Data should be collected then analysed with the purpose of studying the life and importance of officials and royals, and the administrative and social roles they played during the Old Kingdom period, as well as the art depicted in their tombs. The tutorial presentation topics are:

1. Royal children and their role in Dynasty 4 (Week 4)
2. Administrative reforms at the end of Dynasty 5 (Week 5)
3. The viziers of King Wenis (Week 6)
4. The viziers of King Teti (Week 7)
5. Governing Akhmim at the end of Dynasty 5 and the beginning of Dynasty 6 (Week 8)
6. The royal in-laws at Abydos in Dynasty 6 (Week 9)
7. The artistic themes in the tombs of Deir el-Gebrawi in Dynasty 6 (Week 10)
8. The relationship between the capital and the governors of Nome 14 in Dynasty 6 (Week 11)
9. The provincial movement and the fall of the Old Kingdom (Week 12)

Your essay will essentially follow a similar structure and methods as your presentation, simply in a written format with introduction, body and conclusion and references to support your statements.

Final checks to be made before submitting your essay:

- that the pages are numbered and in the correct order;
- that you have written the actual word-length in your essay on the coversheet;
- that you have a copy of your assessment tasks;
- that you have attached a signed copy of the Faculty of Arts essay coversheet after having read the information on the reverse side. Copies of the cover sheet may be found on the ground floor of W6A or online at <http://www.anchist.mq.edu.au/teaching.html>.
- Your signature is essential to verify that it is entirely your own work. The University defines plagiarism in its rules: 'Plagiarism involves using the work of another person and presenting it as one's own' and it carries significant penalties. Information about plagiarism can be found in the Handbook of Undergraduate Studies and at: <http://www.student.mq.edu.au/plagiarism>.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Find, analyse and interpret primary and secondary sources and present the information in an oral format.
- Work with and respond to the views of staff and other students in the unit in an oral form.
- Actively participate in group discussion.
- Plan and revise work according to the unit schedule.
- Either: Transliterate and translate passages from seen and unseen Old Kingdom texts.
Or: Study texts in translation and write a historical analysis on the events included in these texts.
- Analyse and express your judgement about historical issues in an oral and written form.
- Interpret written and archaeological evidence with appreciation and understanding.

Texts translation or commentary

Due: Weeks 6 and 10

Weighting: 25%

Dates: 04.04.2017 (Week 6) and 16.05.2017 (Week 10)

The hieroglyphic texts to be translated in each class are included at the back of this unit outline. You will be asked to transliterate and translate a short passage from these texts and show knowledge of the grammar of Egyptian hieroglyphs.

Students opting to study the texts in translation will submit a 1000 words essay on the historical analysis of each of the studied texts.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Find, analyse and interpret primary and secondary sources and present the information in an oral format.
- Plan and revise work according to the unit schedule.
- Either: Transliterate and translate passages from seen and unseen Old Kingdom texts.
Or: Study texts in translation and write a historical analysis on the events included in these texts.
- Interpret written and archaeological evidence with appreciation and understanding.

In Class Essay

Due: Week 11

Weighting: 15%

Date: 23.05.2017 (Week 11)

The questions will relate to the presentations and discussions on Old Kingdom history and culture. You will be asked to write one essay within 50 minutes.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Find, analyse and interpret primary and secondary sources and present the information in an oral format.
- Plan and revise work according to the unit schedule.
- Analyse and express your judgement about historical issues in an oral and written form.
- Interpret written and archaeological evidence with appreciation and understanding.

Translation or presentation

Due: Weeks 11 and 12

Weighting: 20%

Date: 30.05.2017 (Week 12)

Either a final test on an unseen text in which you will be asked to transliterate and translate a short passage using a dictionary and grammar book and show knowledge of the grammar of Egyptian hieroglyphs, or be required to make a presentation on the historical interpretation of the texts you examined, followed by class discussion.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Find, analyse and interpret primary and secondary sources and present the information in an oral format.
- Plan and revise work according to the unit schedule.
- Either: Transliterate and translate passages from seen and unseen Old Kingdom texts.
Or: Study texts in translation and write a historical analysis on the events included in these texts.
- Interpret written and archaeological evidence with appreciation and understanding.

Delivery and Resources

Unit Requirements and Expectations

To complete the unit satisfactorily, you will need to achieve an overall mark worth 50% or above.

Criteria and standards for the assessment tasks may be found on the unit's iLearn. All assessment tasks must show evidence for the examination of both primary and secondary sources.

Extensions and Special Consideration

If you anticipate any difficulty in attending class for a scheduled test it is important that you contact us as early as possible. Please avoid asking for extensions as missing deadlines complicates the work of markers and puts you behind.

If you have to ask for an extension or the opportunity to re-schedule the date of a test please request it before the deadline, and only request the extension if you face serious crises that can be documented in some way (e.g. with a medical certificate). 'Getting behind with your work' or 'I ran out of time' are not excuses. If you miss a class test due to illness or a serious crisis that can be documented, you can re-schedule and sit the test at a later time. Please see us as soon as possible to organise a time and place to sit a supplementary test.

Without documentation (e.g. medical certificate), a penalty of 2% per day (including weekends) will be applied.

Special Consideration Policy http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/special_consideration/policy.html

Applying for Special Consideration

Students applying for Special Consideration circumstances of three (3) consecutive days duration, within a study period, and/or prevent completion of a formal examination must submit an on-line application with the Faculty of Arts. For an application to be valid, it must include a completed Application for Special Consideration form and all supporting documentation.

The online Special Consideration application is found at: http://www.arts.mq.edu.au/current_students/undergraduate/admin_central/special_consideration.
