Unit description

This introductory unit of the English as a Foreign Language (EFL) Program is designed for students from non-English speaking backgrounds, aiming to further develop their English language skills for social and academic settings. It develops essential skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking as well as the structural properties of English through a communicative language teaching approach. From note-taking and paraphrasing skills to essay writing, report writing and oral presentation skills, this unit provides students with ample opportunities for in-class practice and independent learning. After taking this unit, students will be equipped with fundamental and effective language skills for various social and academic contexts.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Develop essential English language skills needed to communicate effectively in Australian academic and social settings.

Acquire knowledge needed to interpret and produce English text types encountered in Australian academic and social settings.

Analyse English text types encountered and/or produced in Australian academic and social settings.

Describe the logic of English text types and the resulting structures.

Apply language skills to achieve effective interpersonal communication.

Show engagement in independent learning activities.

General Assessment Information

Submission of most tasks is via iLearn. All assessment tasks are compulsory and must be submitted on time. As a general rule, extensions will not be granted without a valid and documented reason (e.g. medical certificate). Late submissions will be penalised by 5% for each day (including weekends) the assignment task is late. No assignments will be accepted after assignments have been corrected and feedback has been provided. Assignment tasks handed in early will not be marked and returned before the due date.

Indicative examples and marking rubrics for all assessment types are to be found in the unit iLearn site.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Acquire knowledge needed to interpret and produce English text types encountered in Australian academic and social settings.
- Apply language skills to achieve effective interpersonal communication.

Assessment tasks

- Essay
- Pair oral presentation

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply language skills to achieve effective interpersonal communication.
- Show engagement in independent learning activities.

Assessment tasks

- Independent learning portfolio
- Class participation

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Show engagement in independent learning activities.

Assessment task

- Independent learning portfolio

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop essential English language skills needed to communicate effectively in Australian academic and social settings.
- Acquire knowledge needed to interpret and produce English text types encountered in Australian academic and social settings.
- Analyse English text types encountered and/or produced in Australian academic and social settings.

- Apply language skills to achieve effective interpersonal communication.

Assessment tasks

- Skills-based tasks
- Independent learning portfolio
- Essay
- Pair oral presentation

- Class participation

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop essential English language skills needed to communicate effectively in Australian academic and social settings.
- Acquire knowledge needed to interpret and produce English text types encountered in Australian academic and social settings.
- Analyse English text types encountered and/or produced in Australian academic and social settings.
- Describe the logic of English text types and the resulting structures.

Assessment tasks

- Skills-based tasks
- Independent learning portfolio
- Essay
- Pair oral presentation

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply language skills to achieve effective interpersonal communication.
- Show engagement in independent learning activities.

Assessment tasks

- Skills-based tasks
- Independent learning portfolio

- Essay
- Pair oral presentation
- Class participation

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop essential English language skills needed to communicate effectively in Australian academic and social settings.
- Acquire knowledge needed to interpret and produce English text types encountered in Australian academic and social settings.
- Analyse English text types encountered and/or produced in Australian academic and social settings.

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Apply language skills to achieve effective interpersonal communication.

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.
