Unit description

This unit offers an overview of Hispanoamerican literature through the study of a selection of key texts. Students will analyse literary works from the most distinguished Latin American writers to help them appreciate and discuss key developments in Latin American social and historical issues since colonisation. As this unit is taught entirely in Spanish, it requires a solid knowledge of the language for students to understand complex texts and be able to discuss them in written and spoken language.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

To hear, speak, read and write modern Spanish language in a variety of registers.

To read, listen to, comprehend and discuss a variety of Spanish texts.

To attain a high level of spoken and written Spanish through practice in class and completion of exercises and assignments.

To foster research skills.

To gain an appreciation of Spanish culture through textual (including literature) and audio-visual material, research and class discussion.

To develop a critical consciousness of issues pertinent to Spanish identity.

Graduate Capabilities

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- To hear, speak, read and write modern Spanish language in a variety of registers.
- To read, listen to, comprehend and discuss a variety of Spanish texts.
- To attain a high level of spoken and written Spanish through practice in class and completion of exercises and assignments.
- To foster research skills.
- To gain an appreciation of Spanish culture through textual (including literature) and audio-visual material, research and class discussion.
- To develop a critical consciousness of issues pertinent to Spanish identity.

Assessment task

- Participation

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- To hear, speak, read and write modern Spanish language in a variety of registers.
- To read, listen to, comprehend and discuss a variety of Spanish texts.
- To attain a high level of spoken and written Spanish through practice in class and completion of exercises and assignments.

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- To hear, speak, read and write modern Spanish language in a variety of registers.
- To foster research skills.
- To gain an appreciation of Spanish culture through textual (including literature) and audio-visual material, research and class discussion.
- To develop a critical consciousness of issues pertinent to Spanish identity.
