Unit description

This advanced unit in the English as a Foreign Language (EFL) Program is designed for students from non-English speaking backgrounds, aiming to further develop their high-level English language skills for effective communications in academic settings. It develops advanced skills in critical reading, going beyond the basic reading comprehension level. Students will also be engaged in tasks designed to develop their critical and analytical thinking skills. It covers various academic text types including different types of essays, critical reviews and poster presentations. Students will also have opportunities to develop advanced skills and knowledge in the structural properties of English. After taking this unit, students will be equipped with advanced and effective language skills for various social and academic contexts.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Demonstrate English language skills needed in order to communicate effectively in Australian academic and social settings.

Acquire knowledge needed to interpret and produce text types encountered in Australian academic and social settings.

Analyse English text types encountered and/or produced in Australian academic and social settings.

Employ coherent and logical structures in various English text types.

Apply language skills to achieve effective interpersonal communication.

Select appropriate independent learning activities and manage individually-tailored program of such activities.

General Assessment Information

Submission of most tasks is via iLearn. All assessment tasks are compulsory and must be submitted on time. As a general rule, extensions will not be granted without a valid and documented reason (e.g. medical certificate). Late submissions will be penalised by 5% for each day (including weekends) the assignment task is late. No assignments will be accepted after assignments have been corrected and feedback has been provided. Assignment tasks handed in early will not be marked and returned before the due date. Indicative exemplars and marking rubrics for all assessment types are to be found in the unit iLearn site.

TECHNOLOGY USED AND REQUIRED

Online Unit

Login is via: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>

Is my unit in iLearn?: <http://help.ilearn.mq.edu.au/unitsonline/> to check when your online unit will become available.

Technology

Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.

For students attending classes on campus we strongly encourage that you bring along your own laptop computer, ready to work with activities in your online unit. The preferred operating system is Windows 10.

Students are required to access the online unit in iLearn by the end of Week 1 and follow any relevant instructions and links for downloads that may be required. If applicable, students are required to download the relevant language package prior to Week 2.

Please contact your course convenor before the end of Week 1 if you do not have a suitable laptop (or tablet) for in-class use.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Acquire knowledge needed to interpret and produce text types encountered in Australian academic and social settings.
- Apply language skills to achieve effective interpersonal communication.

Assessment tasks

- Comparison essay
- Poster presentation

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Employ coherent and logical structures in various English text types.
- Apply language skills to achieve effective interpersonal communication.
- Select appropriate independent learning activities and manage individually-tailored program of such activities.

Assessment tasks

- Critical review
- Independent learning portfolio
- Class participation

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Select appropriate independent learning activities and manage individually-tailored program of such activities.

Assessment task

- Independent learning portfolio

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate English language skills needed in order to communicate effectively in Australian academic and social settings.
- Acquire knowledge needed to interpret and produce text types encountered in Australian academic and social settings.

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Employ coherent and logical structures in various English text types.
- Apply language skills to achieve effective interpersonal communication.
- Select appropriate independent learning activities and manage individually-tailored program of such activities.

Assessment tasks

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Apply language skills to achieve effective interpersonal communication.

Assessment task
