Unit description

This unit is aimed at developing students' advanced oral communication and interpreting skills, including the appropriate use of honorifics. It builds on students' prior knowledge to develop higher level communication skills in a variety of more complex situations – such as negotiations between provider/client – and also focuses on common intercultural communication issues present in more formal situations and those which affect interpreting. Basic training in interpreting is provided through a variety of interactive exercises.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Demonstrate ability to use a wide range of advanced Japanese structures and vocabulary to accurately, effectively and spontaneously process information about the personal world and communicate in a variety of situations

Demonstrate ability to produce spoken Japanese using natural and smooth flow of pronunciation as well as stress, intonation and tempo appropriate to the contexts

Identify purpose, context, key points and some supporting details in aural texts by organising, analysing, evaluating and responding to texts set in a wide range of relatively complex speech (live or broadcast) at normal speed, on familiar and unfamiliar topics encountered in personal, social, academic or vocational life

Recognise the role of different age groups, gender, social status and location on social interactions in Japanese in a variety of created and authentic texts

Demonstrate thorough understanding and ability to apply cross-cultural / intercultural communication skills through participation in pair/group work and class presentations

General Assessment Information

Late Submissions, Extensions and Supplementary Tests

Assessment tasks are compulsory and must be submitted on time. As a general rule, extensions will not be granted without a valid and documented reason (e.g. medical certificate). Late submissions will be penalised by 5% for each day (including weekends) the assessment task is late. A request for a supplementary test will be considered only in the case of serious illness or disruption. No assessment tasks will be accepted after assessment tasks have been corrected and feedback has been provided. Assessment tasks handed in early will not be marked and returned before the due date. If you anticipate unavoidable difficulty in completing an assessment task (in class and/or online), contact the convener or your tutor as soon as possible.

Disruption to Studies

If a student is prevented by serious and unavoidable disruption from completing unit requirements in accordance with their ability, they may apply for support under the Disruption to Studies Policy. To access this support, students must notify the university via ask.mq.edu.au. Students should refer to the Disruption to Studies Policy for further information (see the link provided in the 'Policies and procedures' section of this unit guide).

Examples of Assessment Tasks

Indicative examples of assessment tasks will be available in class and/or iLearn.

Technology used and required

Online Unit

Login is via: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>

Is my unit in iLearn?: <http://help.ilearn.mq.edu.au/unitsonline/> to check when your online unit will become available.

Technology

Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient. Completion of assessment tasks will also require a computer with Japanese fonts enabled. Basic computer skills (e.g., internet browsing) and skills in word processing in Japanese and English are required.

For students attending classes on campus we strongly encourage that you bring along your own laptop computer, ready to work with activities in your online unit. The preferred operating system is Windows 10.

Students are required to access the online unit in iLearn by the end of Week 1 and follow any relevant instructions and links for downloads that may be required. If applicable, students are required to download the relevant language package prior to Week 2.

Please contact your course convenor before the end of Week 1 if you do not have a suitable laptop (or tablet) for in-class use.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate ability to use a wide range of advanced Japanese structures and vocabulary to accurately, effectively and spontaneously process information about the personal world and communicate in a variety of situations
- Demonstrate ability to produce spoken Japanese using natural and smooth flow of pronunciation as well as stress, intonation and tempo appropriate to the contexts
- Demonstrate thorough understanding and ability to apply cross-cultural / intercultural communication skills through participation in pair/group work and class presentations

Assessment tasks

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate ability to produce spoken Japanese using natural and smooth flow of pronunciation as well as stress, intonation and tempo appropriate to the contexts

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate ability to use a wide range of advanced Japanese structures and vocabulary to accurately, effectively and spontaneously process information about the personal world and communicate in a variety of situations
- Demonstrate ability to produce spoken Japanese using natural and smooth flow of pronunciation as well as stress, intonation and tempo appropriate to the contexts

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate ability to use a wide range of advanced Japanese structures and vocabulary to accurately, effectively and spontaneously process information about the personal world and communicate in a variety of situations
- Demonstrate ability to produce spoken Japanese using natural and smooth flow of pronunciation as well as stress, intonation and tempo appropriate to the contexts

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate ability to use a wide range of advanced Japanese structures and vocabulary to accurately, effectively and spontaneously process information about the personal world and communicate in a variety of situations

- Identify purpose, context, key points and some supporting details in aural texts by organising, analysing, evaluating and responding to texts set in a wide range of relatively complex speech (live or broadcast) at normal speed, on familiar and unfamiliar topics encountered in personal, social, academic or vocational life

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate ability to use a wide range of advanced Japanese structures and vocabulary to accurately, effectively and spontaneously process information about the personal world and communicate in a variety of situations
- Identify purpose, context, key points and some supporting details in aural texts by organising, analysing, evaluating and responding to texts set in a wide range of relatively complex speech (live or broadcast) at normal speed, on familiar and unfamiliar topics encountered in personal, social, academic or vocational life

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate ability to use a wide range of advanced Japanese structures and vocabulary to accurately, effectively and spontaneously process information about the personal world and communicate in a variety of situations
- Demonstrate ability to produce spoken Japanese using natural and smooth flow of pronunciation as well as stress, intonation and tempo appropriate to the contexts

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Recognise the role of different age groups, gender, social status and location on social interactions in Japanese in a variety of created and authentic texts
- Demonstrate thorough understanding and ability to apply cross-cultural / intercultural communication skills through participation in pair/group work and class presentations

Assessment tasks

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Recognise the role of different age groups, gender, social status and location on social interactions in Japanese in a variety of created and authentic texts
- Demonstrate thorough understanding and ability to apply cross-cultural / intercultural communication skills through participation in pair/group work and class presentations
