In-Class Exam

Due: Week 7 11th of September

Weighting: 40%

For the in-class exam students will be expected to write an essay. The exam question will be based on the material covered in the first 6 weeks of the course. The test will take place in week 7 during the lecture (11th of September). The students will have an hour to complete the exam. This is an open book exam but students will only be allowed to bring 15 pages of A4 notes. No electronic devices (laptops, tablets, kindles, phones, etc.) will be allowed. No exceptions will be made in this regard.

External students will complete the exam online. These students will have 1hr to complete the exam from the moment of opening the link. The link will be available from Monday the 11th (after the lecture) to the 15th of September (11.59 pm AEST). Note: students will only be able to log in once.

On successful completion you will be able to:

Major Essay

Due: Week 11 26th of October

Weighting: 50%

ASSESSMENT

Students will be assessed as follows:

The major essay is due Thursday 26th of October (4.00 pm). The essay length is 2800 words.

Late Penalties: note that late papers will receive a penalty of 3% per day.

Other Penalties: Word limit of 10% above and below allowed. Anything less than 2000 or more (2800+10%) will be penalised accordingly. The word limit includes footnotes and bibliography.

Format Requirements

- Font size: 12 Font: Times New Roman
- Spacing: 1.5
- Title Page: Each assignment should have a cover page with the essay title written on it in full, your name.
- Document title: – Question number [X], LAST NAME, First Name. This will help with marking and returning your papers efficiently.
- Referencing: Chicago 16th Footnote
- Sources: A minimum of 12 academic sources (academic books and journals, not including websites) must be referenced. Failure to follow this stipulation will result in a penalty of up to 20%.

Questions:

1. How can we explain the relationship between power and the international system today?
2. Which theoretical perspective offers a better explanation for examining and making sense of the current global political order?
3. Critics of the current order have long argued that the synthesis of capitalism and the state in the hands of a class or "powerful elite" will inevitably lead civilisation to destruction (mass inequality, environmental crises, catastrophic wars, etc.) and "barbarism" (chronic state of apathy, excessive individualism, commodification of life, chauvinism, tribalism, xenophobia, etc) . Examine and interrogate the accuracy of this argument.
4. Does world-systems analysis provide a persuasive explanation for the disparities in wealth and power in the current global order? What are the major criticisms of this approach and, are they valid?
5. What role does identity (gender, race, culture) play in determining and shaping global politics today?

Submission of Essays

All essays are to be submitted on Thursday 26th of October (4.00 pm) via turn-it-in on the ilearn website.

There will be strictly NO extensions on submission deadlines for essays other than on certified medical grounds. Late submissions of essays will be penalised at the rate of 3% a day. For example, if you submit your essay 3 days late, and if the paper would have normally been awarded a 75 (out of 100), then 9 marks will be deducted, resulting in 66 as the final grade for the paper.

All work submitted for this course will be graded according to the guidelines issued by the Department of Modern History, Politics and International Relations which are attached at the end of this course guide.

On successful completion you will be able to:
