Unit description

This unit studies the nature, formation and management of the modern corporation. It examines the consequences of the adoption of corporate form including the separation of legal personality between the company and its shareholders and the impact of limited liability. The extensive common law and statutory regulatory regime applicable to directors and other company officers in the management of the company is surveyed as is the important role of shareholders' rights in governing this entity. The examination of the corporation is undertaken in the context of globalisation where the proliferation of corporate governance codes is increasing.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Analyse and articulate (orally and in writing) the substantive corporate law rules in legislation and case law.

Evaluate and critically analyse the effectiveness of corporate legislation and its impact on corporate stakeholders.

Reflect on the interaction between corporate law, history and social context.

Identify, reflect and critically analyse the contextual and doctrinal features of directors' duties.

Develop critical thought and engage with various perspectives on corporate law with a view on reform.

Apply relevant corporate and commercial law principles to resolve legal problems.

Online Quiz One

Due: 25/8/2018

Weighting: 10%

Students are required to do an online quiz consisting of 20 multiple choice questions worth half a mark each. The online quiz will be open for attempts from 6pm Friday 24th August to 6pm Saturday 25th August 2018. Once the student has started the attempt at the quiz, it will remain open for 60 minutes. It will automatically close on the expiry of the 60 minutes.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse and articulate (orally and in writing) the substantive corporate law rules in legislation and case law.
- Evaluate and critically analyse the effectiveness of corporate legislation and its impact on corporate stakeholders.
- Reflect on the interaction between corporate law, history and social context.
- Identify, reflect and critically analyse the contextual and doctrinal features of directors' duties.
- Apply relevant corporate and commercial law principles to resolve legal problems.

Research Essay

Due: 24/9/2018

Weighting: 30%

All students are required to complete a research essay.

The essay will be 2,000 words in length.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Evaluate and critically analyse the effectiveness of corporate legislation and its impact on corporate stakeholders.
- Reflect on the interaction between corporate law, history and social context.
- Identify, reflect and critically analyse the contextual and doctrinal features of directors' duties.

- Apply relevant corporate and commercial law principles to resolve legal problems.

Online Participation

Due: 1/11/2018

Weighting: 10%

Students will be assessed overall on weekly participation to classes. It is assumed that students will attend the weekly tutorial class, make contributions in class and a mark will be allocated at the end of the semester based on the quality of your contributions during class. It is assumed that the students will attend at least 80% of the allocated classes. The student participation mark is likely to decrease if attendance is less than 80% overall.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse and articulate (orally and in writing) the substantive corporate law rules in legislation and case law.
- Evaluate and critically analyse the effectiveness of corporate legislation and its impact on corporate stakeholders.
- Reflect on the interaction between corporate law, history and social context.

Final Examination

Due: 15 November 2018

Weighting: 40%

All students are required to complete a final examination. Further details of the exam will be made available on iLearn closer to the end of the semester and will be posted on ilearn.

This is a timed assessment and no late submissions will be accepted.

This will be done on 15 November 2018. The exam paper will be released at 10 am on 15 November, on ilearn. The students are required to submit a worked solution by 5pm 15 November 2018 through a Turnitin link on ilearn. No AGLC3 compliance is required.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse and articulate (orally and in writing) the substantive corporate law rules in legislation and case law.
- Evaluate and critically analyse the effectiveness of corporate legislation and its impact on corporate stakeholders.

- Reflect on the interaction between corporate law, history and social context.
- Develop critical thought and engage with various perspectives on corporate law with a view on reform.
- Apply relevant corporate and commercial law principles to resolve legal problems.
