Unit description

This unit examines various techniques of financial fraud prevention, investigation and detection. Topics will include: motivations for financial fraud, symptoms of financial fraud, financial statement fraud, evidence collection and evaluation, legal report writing, interviewing witnesses and perpetrators, and fraud prevention. Case studies will be used to provide essential forensic accounting skills.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Demonstrate an appreciation of the role of an independent accountant in uncovering fraudulent activity.

Demonstrate an ability to identify, analyse and interpret indicators of fraudulent activity.

Demonstrate knowledge of investigative processes and investigative techniques, and identify situations for their application.

Skilfully apply techniques in evidence collection and evaluation and present the results of the investigation in a legal context.

Evaluate the role of governance structures, internal controls and compliance policies for the prevention of financial fraud.

General Assessment Information

To complete this unit satisfactorily, students must attempt all components of the assessments and obtain a minimum aggregate grade of 50%.

LATE SUBMISSIONS

No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply to cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved. No submission will be accepted after solutions have been posted.

EXTENSIONS

You are expected to submit written assessment tasks by the published due date unless you have received written permission to submit your work at a later date from the Unit convenor. No extensions will be granted. This penalty does not apply to cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved. No submission will be accepted after solutions have been posted. Details of how the University defines serious and unavoidable disruption to studies, and information about the processes involved, are contained in the Disruptions to Studies Policy.

Assessment Tasks
