Unit description

This unit focuses on the generation of information for internal decision making and examines how cost information is developed and used within organisations. To this end, a number of different costing and budgeting techniques are explained and demonstrated in seminars and students are required to apply those techniques to case study scenarios and develop a sophisticated level of understanding of which technique is most appropriate in a particular situation. Research findings will be used to underpin theories in management accounting.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Demonstrate an understanding of management accounting concepts and apply such concepts to real-life case scenarios.

Critically analyse data to determine the relevant information and costing techniques required to make decisions.

Demonstrate effective written and oral communication skills.

Demonstrate an understanding of and the ability to apply Excel spreadsheet functions to solve management accounting problems.

Understand the principles of management accounting research.

General Assessment Information

Participation

Due: Ongoing

Weighting: 15%

Submission: Students are expected to attend the weekly seminars, have completed the weekly assignment questions, and actively participate in the activities conducted during the seminars. This assessment mark will be awarded in line with the ability of student's to meet the criteria outlined in the unit assessment guide.

Extension: No extension will be granted, except in circumstances where an application for special consideration is made and approved.

Penalties: A mark of zero will be awarded for non-attendance. Students must attend the seminars to receive marks for participation.

Feedback: Class participation marks will be communicated to students via gradebook following the last seminar.

Class Tests

Due: Two closed book class tests will be conducted during the Week 4 and Week 10 seminars. Further details will be provided on ilearn during the session.

Weighting: 15%

Submission: Students must attend their normal weekly seminar class to sit the tests.

Extension: No extension will be granted, except in circumstances where a special consideration is made and approved.

Penalties: A mark of zero will be awarded for non-attendance.

Feedback: The marked class tests will be returned to students within two weeks of the tests.

Excel assignment

Due: Students must attend a three hour session on Excel. This session will be conducted in the computer labs at the North Ryde campus. You must attend the class on the date that you have enrolled in.

Weighting: 10%

Submission: Students will be provided instructions regarding this assessment task during the three hour Excel session.

Extension: No extension will be granted, except in circumstances where an application for special consideration is made and approved.

Penalties: A mark of zero will be awarded for non-attendance. Students must attend the Excel session to receive marks for this assignment.

Feedback: Students will be provided with instructions of the required tasks during the excel workshop. The assessment mark in regard to the completion of the set activities will be communicated to students via gradebook following the completion of the last excel workshop.

Final Examination

Due: During the university examination period (12th - 30th November)

Weighting: 60%

Submission: A three hour invigilated closed book final exam will be held during the university final examination period. Dictionaries are not permitted. Non-programmable calculators with no text retrieval capacity are allowed.

If a supplementary examination is granted as a result of a "Special Consideration" application the examination will be scheduled as per the Supplementary Examination timetable of the Faculty. Please note that the supplementary examination will be of a similar format to the final examination.

Extension: No extension will be granted, except in circumstances where an application for special consideration is made and approved.

Penalties: A mark of zero will be awarded for non-attendance.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Participation	15%	No	On going

Graduate Capabilities

PG - Discipline Knowledge and Skills

Our postgraduates will be able to demonstrate a significantly enhanced depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content knowledge in their chosen fields.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of management accounting concepts and apply such concepts to real-life case scenarios.
- Critically analyse data to determine the relevant information and costing techniques required to make decisions.
- Demonstrate an understanding of and the ability to apply Excel spreadsheet functions to solve management accounting problems.

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Excel Assignment
- Final Examination
- Class Tests

PG - Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

Our postgraduates will be capable of utilising and reflecting on prior knowledge and experience, of applying higher level critical thinking skills, and of integrating and synthesising learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments. A characteristic of this form of thinking is the generation of new, professionally oriented knowledge through personal or group-based critique of practice and theory.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of management accounting concepts and apply such concepts to real-life case scenarios.
- Critically analyse data to determine the relevant information and costing techniques required to make decisions.
- Demonstrate effective written and oral communication skills.

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Final Examination
- Class Tests

PG - Research and Problem Solving Capability

Our postgraduates will be capable of systematic enquiry; able to use research skills to create new knowledge that can be applied to real world issues, or contribute to a field of study or practice to enhance society. They will be capable of creative questioning, problem finding and problem solving.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of management accounting concepts and apply such concepts to real-life case scenarios.
- Critically analyse data to determine the relevant information and costing techniques required to make decisions.

- Demonstrate effective written and oral communication skills.
- Understand the principles of management accounting research.

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Final Examination
