Unit description

This unit will introduce students to the BOSTES website and the resources available to support teachers in planning, scoping and implementing curriculum effectively. Assessment systems, including NAPLAN will be examined and students will practice analysing assessment data effectively. In particular students will be reviewing the Key Learning Areas of: Mathematics; Personal Development, Health and Physical Education (PDHPE); Human Society and its Environment (HSIE). This unit will develop students' understandings of effective teaching and assessment, including literacy and numeracy learning, across curriculum areas in the K-6 context.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Identify and develop diverse strategies for programming, planning and assessing learning in an integrated and inclusive manner that supports diverse student learners.

Examine planning and assessment strategies for all learners and develop strategies for providing timely and appropriate feedback to students about their learning.

Investigate and identify cross-curricular links and pedagogical approaches that are responsive to children's diversities and differences, behaviours, development and intellectual pursuits.

Unpack the socio-historical origins of current understandings and pedagogical practices that have impacted on the framing of the syllabus documents; PDHPE, History and Geography.

Compile a collection of movement and dance experiences for K-6.

Demonstrate a developing understanding of pedagogy and appropriate teaching strategies and be able to critically reflect on these.

General Assessment Information

Specific information in regards to submission criteria, late submission and special consideration is detailed in the Unit Outline which is available on the units iLearn site.

Critical Review	25%	No	Week 4
PDHPE practical teaching	25%	No	Week 7 & On campus
Integrated Unit of Work	50%	No	Week 10

Critical Review

Due: Week 4

Weighting: 25%

This assessment provides students with the opportunity to demonstrate their understanding of how certain forms of knowledge that have emerged as 'history' have been socially-constructed and influenced by ethical, political, social and contextual factors.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Investigate and identify cross-curricular links and pedagogical approaches that are responsive to children's diversities and differences, behaviours, development and intellectual pursuits.
- Unpack the socio-historical origins of current understandings and pedagogical practices that have impacted on the framing of the syllabus documents; PDHPE, History and Geography.

PDHPE practical teaching

Due: Week 7 & On campus

Weighting: 25%

Assessment 2 comprises of two interrelated tasks:

- Part A is a lesson plan for your given task (individual task and due in Week 7)
- Part B is a group teaching task to be presented at the on-campus session

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Investigate and identify cross-curricular links and pedagogical approaches that are responsive to children's diversities and differences, behaviours, development and intellectual pursuits.
- Compile a collection of movement and dance experiences for K-6.
- Demonstrate a developing understanding of pedagogy and appropriate teaching strategies and be able to critically reflect on these.

Integrated Unit of Work

Due: Week 10

Weighting: 50%

This assessment provides students with the opportunity to demonstrate their understanding of integration of various learning areas. Specifically PDHPE, History and Geography; as well as literacy and numeracy core concepts.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and develop diverse strategies for programming, planning and assessing learning in an integrated and inclusive manner that supports diverse student learners.
- Examine planning and assessment strategies for all learners and develop strategies for providing timely and appropriate feedback to students about their learning.
- Investigate and identify cross-curricular links and pedagogical approaches that are responsive to children's diversities and differences, behaviours, development and intellectual pursuits.
- Compile a collection of movement and dance experiences for K-6.
- Demonstrate a developing understanding of pedagogy and appropriate teaching strategies and be able to critically reflect on these.

Delivery and Resources

This course is offered via internal and external modes. All classes for this unit begin in Session 1, Week 1 for all students

In order to be eligible for a passing grade, students must meet the following requirements:

- Students are expected to read weekly readings before completing tasks and attending tutorials and on-campus days.

- Students are expected to attend / listen to weekly lectures before completing tasks and attending tutorials / on-campus days.
- Students are expected to participate in all practical components of the unit and complete all activities as required.
- For practical sessions, students must wear appropriate clothing and footwear for participation in sporting activities. Appropriate clothing is deemed as shorts, leggings, and tracksuit pants with footwear being joggers/running shoes. Students who arrive to practical sessions not correctly dressed (i.e. skirts, jeans, inappropriate footwear) may be unable to participate and will therefore be marked as absent.
- In order to receive a passing grade in this unit, you need to meet the following criteria:
 - Have made a serious attempt at passing all pieces of work in order to pass the unit.
 - In order to receive a grade of Pass, your total mark must be at least 50/100.
 - Note: It is not the responsibility of unit staff to contact students who have failed to submit assignments. If you have any missing items of assessment, it is your responsibility to make contact with the unit convenor.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Demonstrate a developing understanding of pedagogy and appropriate teaching strategies and be able to critically reflect on these.

Assessment tasks

- PDHPE practical teaching
- Integrated Unit of Work

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and develop diverse strategies for programming, planning and assessing learning in an integrated and inclusive manner that supports diverse student learners.
- Demonstrate a developing understanding of pedagogy and appropriate teaching strategies and be able to critically reflect on these.

Assessment task

- Critical Review

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Investigate and identify cross-curricular links and pedagogical approaches that are responsive to children's diversities and differences, behaviours, development and intellectual pursuits.
- Unpack the socio-historical origins of current understandings and pedagogical practices that have impacted on the framing of the syllabus documents; PDHPE, History and Geography.

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and develop diverse strategies for programming, planning and assessing learning in an integrated and inclusive manner that supports diverse student learners.
- Examine planning and assessment strategies for all learners and develop strategies for providing timely and appropriate feedback to students about their learning.

- Investigate and identify cross-curricular links and pedagogical approaches that are responsive to children's diversities and differences, behaviours, development and intellectual pursuits.

- Demonstrate a developing understanding of pedagogy and appropriate teaching strategies and be able to critically reflect on these.

Assessment tasks

- Critical Review
- PDHPE practical teaching
- Integrated Unit of Work

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and develop diverse strategies for programming, planning and assessing learning in an integrated and inclusive manner that supports diverse student learners.
- Examine planning and assessment strategies for all learners and develop strategies for providing timely and appropriate feedback to students about their learning.
- Investigate and identify cross-curricular links and pedagogical approaches that are responsive to children's diversities and differences, behaviours, development and intellectual pursuits.

Assessment tasks

- Critical Review
- PDHPE practical teaching
- Integrated Unit of Work

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and develop diverse strategies for programming, planning and assessing learning in an integrated and inclusive manner that supports diverse student learners.
- Examine planning and assessment strategies for all learners and develop strategies for providing timely and appropriate feedback to students about their learning.

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Unpack the socio-historical origins of current understandings and pedagogical practices that have impacted on the framing of the syllabus documents; PDHPE, History and Geography.
