ECHX826 - Leading and Managing Early Childhood

Unit description

This unit aims to build students' capacity to lead and manage quality early childhood education settings. The unit critically examines the social, political and legal contexts within which early childhood education settings in Australia operate, and explores early childhood leadership theory. Students will investigate diverse management structures, regulatory and legislative frameworks, and the ethical and professional roles and responsibilities of early childhood teachers as leaders and managers.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Understand and critically engage with the ever changing socio-political and legal contexts within which early childhood settings operate.
2. Identify key differences between the managing and leading of an early childhood setting, and the range of management structures under which early childhood settings operate.
3. Demonstrate a strong understanding of leadership theories.
4. Demonstrate knowledge and foundational skills that they, as future managers and leaders of early childhood settings require.
5. Apply high order analytical and integrative thinking skills through critique of practice and theory to understand the complexities of early childhood management and leadership.
6. Demonstrate a commitment to managing and leading ethically and professionally.
7. Develop professional judgement and vision in relation to leading and managing early childhood settings.
8. Reflect on their own knowledge and skill base and consider professional development priorities that will enable them to, as a future leader of an early childhood setting, play a critical role in that centre's provision of quality early childhood education for young children.

Delivery and Resources

Electronic Communication

During semester time, staff may contact students using the following ways:

- Dialogue function on iLearn
- Official MQ Student Email Address

It is the students responsibility to check all electronic communication on a regular weekly basis.

Resources

The information in this Unit Guide must be read in conjunction with the Assessment, Readings and Study Guide for ECEDX826, that is available for download from iLearn.

Important note:

It is recommended that ECED/X 826 be taken in your final year of the Master of Teaching (Birth to Five Years) because it is assumed that you have some familiarity with EC settings. It is therefore essential to have completed the required pre-requisites for this unit, in particular ECED/X603.

Withdrawing from this PG Unit

If you are considering withdrawing from this unit, before you proceed, please seek academic advice by writing to ask.mq.edu.au, because this unit may be a co-requisite or prerequisite for units in the following semesters and may impact on your progression through the Master of Teaching (Birth to Five Years) degree.
