Unit description

This unit provides students with practical opportunities to further develop their translation competence. Students will practice translating a range of domain-specific texts common in professional practice. The unit takes a problem-based approach encouraging students to identify and discuss problems encountered in the course of translation related to textual, stylistic, register, and language usage issues. Students will learn about, apply and evaluate strategies to solve the more challenging translation problems.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Apply translation skills and knowledge to translate texts in a range of domains and genres

Undertake domain and genre specific research for the purpose of translation

Demonstrate critical analysis of source and target texts

Explain translation choices informed by translation theory and self-reflection

Evaluate and edit target texts

Work efficiently in a team through peer evaluation

Apply knowledge of professional ethics to translation tasks

General Assessment Information

How to apply for a late submission of an assignment

All requests for special consideration, including extensions, must be submitted via <https://ask.mq.edu.au/> and provide suitable supporting documentation. Contact your unit convenor first for advice, especially in the case of an emergency or if you are unsure about the extension policy.

Late Assignment Submission

- Late submissions without an extension will receive a penalty of 5% of the total mark available for the assignment per day
- Late submission of an assignment without an extension will not be permitted after marks have been released to the rest of the class.
- Extensions will only be given in special circumstances, and can be requested by completing the Special Consideration request at ask.mq.edu.au and providing the requisite supporting documentation. For more information on Special Consideration, see the university website <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration>
- Assignments submitted after the deadline, regardless of the reason, will be marked and returned at a date determined by the unit convenor.
- Extensions cannot continue beyond the start of the following semester except under exceptional circumstances, and students should be aware that long extensions may impact graduation dates.
