Unit description

This unit presents a survey of ancient Greek history and culture in the Archaic and Classical periods. It examines colonisation and the emergence of Greek city-states, notably Athens and Sparta, tracing their transformation through conflicts with the Persian empire and one another, down to the rise of Phillip II of Macedon. During these years Greeks were ruled by kings, aristocrats, oligarchs, tyrants, and (some of them) by themselves, in the world's first democratic systems. It examines how literary, archaeological, and epigraphic sources are used to reconstruct the past.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Understand and use primary literary sources (in English translation) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC

Study and interpret evidence of material culture (archaeological, epigraphic, numismatic) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC

Read and evaluate modern academic studies (written in English) of Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC

Research and write tightly focussed, analytical, and argumentative studies on topics relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC

Present written work to a high standard, with relevant footnoting and accurate bibliographies

Relate ancient Greek historiography to broader issues in ancient and modern history

General Assessment Information

SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF THE UNIT

To complete the unit successfully you need a minimum mark of 50% overall. You must attempt every piece of assessment or marks may be deducted (see 'Extensions and Penalties' below).

GRADES:

F: 0-49% P: 50-64% CR: 65-74% D: 75-84% HD: 85-100%

Grade descriptors may be found in a separate document on the unit's website.

BLOGS

You are required to post two blog entries each of 200 words (maximum) commenting on one significant aspect of the set reading(s) which will be discussed in the relevant tutorials by Saturday, 11 pm of weeks 3 and 6. Each blog entry must include a topic sentence, primary evidence and argument based on opinions of two modern scholars, and be fully referenced using in-text (Harvard style) referencing and a bibliography. Provide a word count. The bibliography does not count in the word count. Each blog is worth 5% of the total mark making a total of 10% of your assessment for the unit.

ONLINE QUIZZES

There are short online quizzes in weeks 2, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9 and 11 and one major online quiz in week 13. The minor quizzes will test you on material covered in the lectures and tutorials of the current and preceding week(s) back to the last quiz. (Tip: you will easily be able to answer the questions if you have listened to the lectures and read the set readings for each tutorial - they are not designed to trick you). Access to each quiz is through the unit's website. You may take the quizzes at any time during the relevant week but you may take each quiz only once. All answers will be either right or wrong. Each minor quiz consists of ten questions and is worth 5% of your mark. The major quiz will comprise 30 questions and will test you on material covered in the whole unit - it is worth 15%. In total the quizzes are worth 50% of your overall mark.

ESSAY BIBLIOGRAPHY

You must submit a bibliography through Turnitin containing five of the most significant journal articles or book chapters (NOT books or book chapters) you plan to use for your Major Essay.

For each source provide a short explanation of no more than 50 words of its usefulness to your essay. The bibliography is due by 5 pm Friday of Week 10 and is worth 10% of your total marks.

MAJOR ESSAY

The MAJOR ESSAY is due by 5pm Friday of week 12. It MUST be submitted through Turnitin. It is worth 30% of your total mark for the unit.

The set question is: Why did the Spartans and their allies win the Peloponnesian War? Clearly identify and analyse the main factors. The tutorial in Week 8 is devoted to discussing the requirements for a good essay. Draft answers (on a non-assessed question) will be provided.

Your answer to the essay question should demonstrate extensive use of primary and secondary sources. Bibliographies provided give you a starting point for developing a reading list of secondary literature relevant to the essay topic. In order to locate further material on particular issues you should consult the footnotes and indices of modern works.

Your essay should be based on an analysis and discussion of primary (ancient) sources. Secondary literature should be used to aid you in your analysis and interpretation of the ancient sources and to place your interpretation within the context of previous scholarship. All opinions included in the essay, whether quoted directly or paraphrased, MUST be referenced according to the guidelines given in the Assignment Presentation Style Guide available on the iLearn site following the instructions for in-text (Harvard style) referencing. Do NOT add any extraneous information in footnotes. Remember to include every reference you have actually used in your bibliography. Do not reference lectures. You must include a word count. Anything beyond the prescribed word limit (2,000 words +/- 10% excluding footnotes and bibliography) will not be marked.

Marking criteria:

1. Argument and critical evaluation of evidence - 30% weighting
2. Structure and organisation - 20% weighting
3. Use of primary sources - 15% weighting
4. Use of secondary sources - 15% weighting
5. Grammar, style and spelling - 10% weighting
6. Referencing and bibliography - 10% weighting

RETURN OF WORK

Blogs, Essay bibliography: I plan to mark the blogs with feedback within a week of submission.

Quizzes: Results will be available as soon as the quiz closes.

Essay: I will mark this on-line through Turnitin and release it when all marking is completed.

EXTENSIONS AND PENALTIES

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes.

IMPORTANT NOTE ON FINAL MARKS

Please note with respect to the marks you receive for work during the session that the marks given are indicative only; final marks will be determined after moderation. See further the note on Results in the Policies and Procedures section below.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
On-line quizzes	50%	No	Weeks 2, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 11, 13
Blog Posts	10%	No	Week 3, 6
Essay bibliography	10%	No	Week 10
Major essay	30%	No	Week 12

On-line quizzes

Due: Weeks 2, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 11, 13

Weighting: 50%

Do seven minor quizzes and one major quiz spaced throughout the semester based on information provided in the lectures and tutorials in the preceding week(s). The minor quizzes will consist of ten multiple-choice or right/wrong questions and will each be worth five percent of the total assessment. The major quiz at the end of the semester will comprise 30 questions and be worth fifteen percent of the total assessment.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand and use primary literary sources (in English translation) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC
- Study and interpret evidence of material culture (archaeological, epigraphic, numismatic) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC

Essay bibliography

Due: Week 10

Weighting: 10%

Submit a bibliography through Turnitin containing five significant journal articles or chapters in edited volumes (NOT books or book chapters) you plan to use for your Major Essay. For each source, provide a short explanation of no more than 50 words of its usefulness to your essay.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand and use primary literary sources (in English translation) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC
- Study and interpret evidence of material culture (archaeological, epigraphic, numismatic) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC
- Read and evaluate modern academic studies (written in English) of Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC
- Present written work to a high standard, with relevant footnoting and accurate bibliographies

Major essay

Due: Week 12

Weighting: 30%

Write a full-length essay (2,000 words +/- 10% excluding bibliography) and submit it through Turnitin. The set question is: Why did the Spartans and their allies win the Peloponnesian War? Clearly identify and analyse the main factors.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand and use primary literary sources (in English translation) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC
- Study and interpret evidence of material culture (archaeological, epigraphic, numismatic) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC

Delivery and Resources

Delivery modes

Internal (Day) and External

Lectures and tutorials

- Lectures: There are two lectures per week on Thursdays 10-11 and Fridays 10-11 am both in the T1 Theatre, 23 Wallys Walk.
- Tutorials: There is one tutorial per week for Weeks 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11. See the website for a list of tutorials all of which are on Thursdays and Fridays for one hour after the lectures.
- For current updates, times and classrooms please consult the MQ Timetables website: <http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au>.
- Lectures will be recorded and available via Echo 360.
- One tutorial a week will be recorded and available via Echo 360. This is mostly intended for External students, though everyone is free to listen to it. Please note that the tutorial is given in an ordinary classroom and because of the limitations of the recording equipment it may be difficult to hear when students talk, though it should be possible to hear what the tutor says.

- Attendance at tutorials is required for day students. If you are unable to go to your scheduled tutorial, go to one at a different time (no special permission is needed for this). External students must listen to the recorded tutorial. Tip: If you do not go to, or listen to the lectures and tutorials, you will find it difficult to answer the quizzes and successfully write the blogs.

READING LIST

The required course textbook is Terry Buckley's Aspects of Greek History: A Source-Based Approach, 2nd edition, (London 2010), copies available in the Coop bookshop (some also available in the library).

You are also required to become familiar with the ancient literary source material which will be the basis of much of what we discuss. The most necessary are conveniently found in the following reasonably-priced editions:

- Herodotus: The Histories (Penguin ed., London 1972)
- Thucydides: History of the Peloponnesian War (Penguin ed., London 1972)

Better versions with indices and explanatory appendices are the Landmark editions of both Herodotus and Thucydides edited by Robert B. Strassler and these have been ordered by the Coop bookshop:

- The Landmark Herodotus: The Histories (Pantheon Books, New York, 2007)
- The Landmark Thucydides: a Comprehensive Guide to the Peloponnesian

War (Touchstone, New York, 1998)

Versions of Herodotus and Thucydides are also freely available on-line.

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand and use primary literary sources (in English translation) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC
- Study and interpret evidence of material culture (archaeological, epigraphic, numismatic) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-4th centuries BC
