Unit description

This unit aims at providing students with a general knowledge of the historical tradition and transition of Japan. The unit begins in ancient Japan and continues through the major periods of Japanese history until the present day. For each period, the key individuals, groups, events and developments, along with the important issues and concepts, will be introduced. Topics covered include the Japanese imperial court and emperors, the rule of the samurai, Japan's national isolation and subsequent modernisation, and WWII and its related events and issues. The underlying theme of the unit will be to examine the links between Japan's history and the Japan of today. The unit also focuses on understanding Japan's place in the wider world. This unit is conducted in English and is open to students from any Faculty interested in Japan.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Develop knowledge of Japanese history and its relevance to contemporary Japan and the wider world

Generate reasoned historiographical analysis via a transnational approach to understanding key events and individuals in Japanese history

Present information in a well-structured manner, both orally and in writing

Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant and appropriate resources, and use of correct referencing procedure.

Acquire interpersonal skills and cross-cultural competence through class participation

General Assessment Information

Indicative examples of assessment tasks will be available on iLearn.

Assessment tasks are compulsory and must be submitted on time. Assessment tasks handed in early will not be marked and returned before the due date. If you anticipate unavoidable difficulty in completing an assessment task (in class and/or online), contact the convener or your tutor as soon as possible.

If a student is prevented by serious and unavoidable disruption from completing unit requirements in accordance with their ability, they may apply for support under the Special Consideration Policy. To access this support, students must notify the university via ask.mq.edu.au. Students should refer to the Special Consideration Policy for further information (see the link provided in the 'Policies and procedures' section of this unit guide).

PLEASE NOTE:

It is always best practice to communicate directly with your unit convener at the first instance, as sometimes decisions can be made with greater speed and flexibility.

Late Assessment Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Participation	15%	No	Weekly
Critical Article Review	15%	No	12 April
Online Quiz 1	15%	No	28 April
Online Quiz 2	15%	No	2 June
Essay	40%	No	7 June

Participation

Due: Weekly

Weighting: 15%

For satisfactory completion of this task, students are required to actively participate in all activities (both online and in-class, where applicable). Internal students are required to actively participate in weekly Tutorials. External students are required to listen to recorded lectures, actively participate in online activities, and study independently as instructed. The assessment rubric for Participation is available in iLearn.

Note: Tutorial discussion will be heavily based on unit readings and the lecture content, so it is imperative that students read all of the required reading and prepare notes and questions for further discussion BEFORE each tutorial EVERY WEEK.

Internal Students: Participation grades are assessed through engagement during weekly tutorials. Internal students will also be required to show your tutor a copy of your notes each week, with failure to do so leading to forfeiture of that week's participation grade.

External Students: Participation grades are assessed through online engagement with the weekly discussion forums, where students are to post responses to the questions found within tutorial slides and any comments made by teaching staff and/or other students made to their posts. Actively commenting and respectfully discussing other students' ideas forms part of assessment, with failure to do so leading to forfeiture of that week's participation grade. Each week, the weekly discussion forum will open at 9am Wednesday and close at 5pm Monday.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop knowledge of Japanese history and its relevance to contemporary Japan and the wider world
- Generate reasoned historiographical analysis via a transnational approach to understanding key events and individuals in Japanese history
- Present information in a well-structured manner, both orally and in writing
- Acquire interpersonal skills and cross-cultural competence through class participation

Critical Article Review

Due: 12 April

Weighting: 15%

Length: 500 words plus bibliographical data

Format: Times New Roman 12 point font, typed A4, double-spaced

In this task, students are required to write a 500 word critical review of one of two articles made available on iLearn.

Detailed information on how to complete this task will be provided in tutorials and iLearn. The assessment rubric for this task is available in iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop knowledge of Japanese history and its relevance to contemporary Japan and the wider world
- Generate reasoned historiographical analysis via a transnational approach to understanding key events and individuals in Japanese history
- Present information in a well-structured manner, both orally and in writing
- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant and appropriate resources, and use of correct referencing procedure.

Online Quiz 1

Due: 28 April

Weighting: 15%

This quiz is designed to assess your understanding of the unit content, as well as your critical thinking and academic writing skills. Questions will be based on the unit content from Week 2 to Week 7. You are advised to revise the content of the lectures, tutorials, and essential readings. The quiz may include the following question types: multiple choice, true/false, short response and medium response.

Delivery and Resources

Required Resources

The required textbook for this unit is:

Morton, W. Scott and J. Kenneth Olenik. 2005. Japan: Its History and Culture. 4th ed. New York: McGraw Hill.

This text is available from the Co-Op Bookshop on campus. A limited number of copies are also available for loan from the short-term Reserve section of the university library.

IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE STUDENT TO GAIN ACCESS TO THE TEXTBOOK WHICH WILL BE REQUIRED FROM WEEK 1.

TECHNOLOGY USED AND REQUIRED

Online Unit

Login is via: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>

Is my unit in iLearn?: <http://help.ilearn.mq.edu.au/unitsonline/> to check when your online unit will become available.

Technology

Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.

For students attending classes on campus we strongly encourage that you bring along your own laptop computer, although this particular unit will not require internal students to complete online activities within tutorials. For internal students, tutorials will be primarily discussion-based, with laptops being a useful way to bring your pre-prepared notes from home as well as to take notes during tutorial discussions. The preferred operating system is Windows 10.

Students are required to access the online unit in iLearn by the end of Week 1 and follow any relevant instructions and links for downloads that may be required. If applicable, students are required to download the relevant language package prior to Week 2. ALL STUDENTS ARE REQUIRED TO REGULARLY ACCESS ILEARN EACH WEEK TO ACCESS LEARNING MATERIALS.

Please contact your course convenor before the end of Week 1 if you do not have a suitable laptop (or tablet) for in-class use.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Generate reasoned historiographical analysis via a transnational approach to understanding key events and individuals in Japanese history
- Present information in a well-structured manner, both orally and in writing

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Critical Article Review
- Online Quiz 1
- Online Quiz 2
- Essay

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant and appropriate resources, and use of correct referencing procedure.
- Acquire interpersonal skills and cross-cultural competence through class participation

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Critical Article Review
- Online Quiz 1
- Online Quiz 2
- Essay

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop knowledge of Japanese history and its relevance to contemporary Japan and the wider world
- Acquire interpersonal skills and cross-cultural competence through class participation

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Critical Article Review
- Online Quiz 1
- Online Quiz 2
- Essay

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop knowledge of Japanese history and its relevance to contemporary Japan and the wider world
- Generate reasoned historiographical analysis via a transnational approach to understanding key events and individuals in Japanese history
- Present information in a well-structured manner, both orally and in writing
- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant and appropriate resources, and use of correct referencing procedure.

Assessment tasks

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop knowledge of Japanese history and its relevance to contemporary Japan and the wider world
- Generate reasoned historiographical analysis via a transnational approach to understanding key events and individuals in Japanese history
- Present information in a well-structured manner, both orally and in writing
- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant and appropriate resources, and use of correct referencing procedure.

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Critical Article Review
- Online Quiz 1
- Online Quiz 2

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Generate reasoned historiographical analysis via a transnational approach to understanding key events and individuals in Japanese history
- Present information in a well-structured manner, both orally and in writing
- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant and appropriate resources, and use of correct referencing procedure.

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Critical Article Review
- Online Quiz 1
- Online Quiz 2

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Generate reasoned historiographical analysis via a transnational approach to understanding key events and individuals in Japanese history

- Present information in a well-structured manner, both orally and in writing
- Acquire interpersonal skills and cross-cultural competence through class participation

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Critical Article Review
- Online Quiz 1
- Online Quiz 2
- Essay

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop knowledge of Japanese history and its relevance to contemporary Japan and the wider world
- Generate reasoned historiographical analysis via a transnational approach to understanding key events and individuals in Japanese history
- Acquire interpersonal skills and cross-cultural competence through class participation

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Critical Article Review
- Online Quiz 1
- Online Quiz 2
