Unit description

This unit comprehensively explores Japanese contemporary culture from socio-cultural, psychological, philosophical and literary perspectives. It will place a particular focus on manga and anime, providing insights into their unique visual and linguistic narratives (such as symbolism, conventions, and the specific features and issues characterising manga/anime creation and circulation) as well as socio-cultural, political and economic influences.

Furthermore, this unit is designed to help students to develop their appreciation of Japanese traditional cultural assets and their continuity with Japanese popular culture. In addition, as a 100 level unit, this unit incorporates basic skills training for research and essay writing. This unit is conducted in English and is open to students of any Faculty interested in Japan.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

develop an insight into the expressive power of Japanese popular culture, and analyse their social, cultural and political significance

- develop an understanding of Japanese popular culture production
- read and interpret academic materials to build understanding of Japanese popular culture related concepts and/or Japanese popular culture productions
- actively engage with other students and teaching staff and express your ideas and critical opinions both orally and in writing
- develop and articulate your original views on Japanese popular culture related topics in a clear, analytical and cohesive manner
- search for academic references or other relevant materials
- plan, revise and submit assignments according to schedule and instructions.

General Assessment Information

Late Submissions, Extensions and Supplementary Tests

Assessment tasks are compulsory and must be submitted on time. If you anticipate unavoidable difficulty in completing an assessment task (in class and/or online), contact the convener or your tutor as soon as possible.

Late Assessment Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Special Consideration

If a student is prevented by serious and unavoidable disruption from completing unit requirements in accordance with their ability, they may apply for support under the Special Consideration Policy. To access this support, students must notify the university via ask.mq.edu.au. Students should refer to the Policy for further information (see the link provided in the 'Policies and procedures' section of this unit guide).

Examples of Assessment Tasks

Indicative examples of assessment tasks will be available in class and/or iLearn.

- develop and articulate your original views on Japanese popular culture related topics in a clear, analytical and cohesive manner

Reading Game

Due: Weekly

Weighting: 15%

This task is to enhance your analytical interpretation of the scholarly articles in the JPS124 reading list, in a collaborative way. It requires you to create at least one multiple choice question on one article from the week's reading list and respond to at least five questions provided by other students in the game. This weekly game will be reset at twelve at Saturday night. Further details will be provided in iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- develop an insight into the expressive power of Japanese popular culture, and analyse their social, cultural and political significance

- develop an understanding of Japanese popular culture production
- read and interpret academic materials to build understanding of Japanese popular culture related concepts and/or Japanese popular culture productions
- plan, revise and submit assignments according to schedule and instructions.

Performing Japan's Pop Culture

Due: September 29

Weighting: 30%

This group presentation involves the creation of a short video capturing your chosen creative example of Japan's Pop Culture (e.g., manga, anime, drama, skit, cosplay, music or drawing) in which you also analytically discuss your creation/performance. Your presentation should be audio recorded. You are also required to complete the self assessment. Further details will be provided in iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- develop an insight into the expressive power of Japanese popular culture, and analyse their social, cultural and political significance
- develop an understanding of Japanese popular culture production
- actively engage with other students and teaching staff and express your ideas and critical opinions both orally and in writing
- plan, revise and submit assignments according to schedule and instructions.

Essay Presentation

Due: W13

Weighting: 5%

This task requires you to give a 2-3-minute presentation on your essay followed by a Q/A session in group, using only three Powerpoint slides. This is a Pass/Fail task.

Internal students will complete this task in class and External students will make a short video and submitted the external forum. Further details will be provided in iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- develop an insight into the expressive power of Japanese popular culture, and analyse their social, cultural and political significance
- actively engage with other students and teaching staff and express your ideas and critical opinions both orally and in writing
- plan, revise and submit assignments according to schedule and instructions.

Essay

Due: November 10

Weighting: 35%

This task requires you to select:

1. one of the weekly essay questions provided from Week 2 to Week 12 and write a 1500 word essay analytically responding to the essay question based on that week's required reading; OR
2. one or two example(s) of Japanese manga, pop music, anime, films, TV dramas, fashion or games and write a 1500 word essay analytically discussing the relevancy of the work(s) for exploring one (1) of the following issues with identity; otherness; technology; environment; or Japan's war past, for non-Japanese readers/audiences.

The essay should be fully referenced and include appropriate examples and scholarly references, as instructed. Further details will be provided in iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- develop an insight into the expressive power of Japanese popular culture, and analyse their social, cultural and political significance
- read and interpret academic materials to build understanding of Japanese popular culture related concepts and/or Japanese popular culture productions

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- develop an understanding of Japanese popular culture production
- develop and articulate your original views on Japanese popular culture related topics in a clear, analytical and cohesive manner

Assessment tasks

- Performing Japan's Pop Culture
- Essay

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- plan, revise and submit assignments according to schedule and instructions.

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- read and interpret academic materials to build understanding of Japanese popular culture related concepts and/or Japanese popular culture productions

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- develop an insight into the expressive power of Japanese popular culture, and analyse their social, cultural and political significance
- develop an understanding of Japanese popular culture production
