1. Diagnostic task

Due: Friday 22 August
Weighting: 20%

Diagnostic task: 1000 words (20% of assessment)

This task is related to the first topic: ‘How have Australian historians helped shape the national story?’ Select one Australian historian from the list below and outline how that historian’s work has helped Australians either form or redefine a sense of national identity, and assess the response to their work - by academic critics and in the public sphere. Your assignment should be submitted via Turnitin.

C.M.H. (Manning) Clark
Miriam Dixson
Marilyn Lake
Henry Reynolds
Russel Ward
This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Read and analyse different kinds of historical evidence, including visual and textual sources
- Find, analyse and apply historical information (especially self-located research materials)
- Communicate effectively in oral forms, and in a range of written forms

2. Research essay

Due: Friday 3 October
Weighting: 60%

Write a 3,000 word essay by selecting a question from one of the Topic One to Eight discussion questions. Consult the reading lists included in the Unit Guide under 'Delivery and Resources', but you should also conduct your own research and seek out other relevant readings. Please also consult the advice below on writing an essay in history. Your essay should be submitted via Turnitin.

Online participation

Due: Across semester
Weighting: 20%

The online discussion and participation task, undertaken through the iLearn Online Website, tests your ability to communicate ideas, your appreciation and comprehension of the themes and concepts discussed in the course, your ability to critically assess and evaluate the arguments of others, and your ability to clearly articulate your thoughts. It is also a task that monitors your progress across the unit topics. Each week you will find recommended discussion readings, but you may of course have to find alternatives if those recommendations are not available to you. Each topic reading list, which may be found in the Unit Guide under 'Delivery and Resources', includes a number of alternative readings.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
• Read and analyse different kinds of historical evidence, including visual and textual sources
• Find, analyse and apply historical information (especially self-located research materials)
• Engage effectively in group work with your peers; participate actively in group discussions
