Unit description

This unit builds on students' previous studies in Chinese. Students work towards achieving a high degree of proficiency in both written and spoken Chinese. Emphasis will also be placed on literary texts.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Demonstrate the ability to read and interpret a wide range of texts covering social, literary and natural science topics and the ability to distinguish between formal written language and vernacular spoken language.
2. Demonstrate written and spoken proficiency in expressing a range of familiar topics related to the learning materials and of personal interests.
3. Demonstrate skills of translation between English to Chinese and from Chinese to English.
4. Demonstrate mastery and application of major grammatical constructions at an advanced level.
5. Demonstrate awareness and skill in identifying and analyzing cultural similarities and differences expressed through linguistic forms and texts.

General Assessment Information

Indicative examples of assessment tasks will be available on iLearn.

Late Assessment Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

TECHNOLOGY USED AND REQUIRED

Online Unit

Login is via: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>

Is my unit in iLearn?: <http://help.ilearn.mq.edu.au/unitsonline/> to check when your online unit will become available.

Technology

Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.

For students attending classes on campus we strongly encourage that you bring along your own laptop computer, ready to work with activities in your online unit. The preferred operating system is Windows 10.

Students are required to access the online unit in iLearn by the end of Week 1 and follow any relevant instructions and links for downloads that may be required. If applicable, students are required to download the relevant language package prior to Week 2.

Please contact your course convenor before the end of Week 1 if you do not have a suitable laptop (or tablet) for in-class use.

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- 2 Demonstrate written and spoken proficiency in expressing a range of familiar topics related to the learning materials and of personal interests.

- 5. Demonstrate awareness and skill in identifying and analyzing cultural similarities and differences expressed through linguistic forms and texts.
