Unit description

This unit aims to help students of ancient history develop their knowledge of the Latin language. It continues the systematic introduction to the grammar and vocabulary begun in unit AHIS118. The unit also aims to help students build skills in reading original Latin literary and documentary texts, and analyse the significance of Latin for the study of relevant ancient cultures.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at more advanced level

Recognise and memorise extended Latin vocabulary

Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to this level of study

Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools

Employ linguistic metalanguage

Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing Latin texts

Analyse the significance of Latin for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Participation	10%	No	Weekly
Quizzes	25%	No	See unit schedule
Prose Compositions	30%	No	See unit schedule
Examination	35%	No	See unit schedule

Participation

Due: Weekly

Weighting: 10%

The purpose of this low-risk assessment is to test your engagement with unit content and developing knowledge and skills.

You will be required to participate in class exercises where we work together to practise translation from English to Latin.

There will be up to 12 of these exercises conducted during the course of the unit and each student is expected to participate in at least five.

External students and others unable (for an acceptable reason) to participate in class will participate via the iLearn Discussion Forum. Two sentences will be set for translation and analysis in each session.

In this assessment marks are awarded for engaged and effective participation in discussions, not for correctness of translation.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at more advanced level
- Recognise and memorise extended Latin vocabulary
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to this level of study
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Employ linguistic metalanguage
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing Latin texts
- Analyse the significance of Latin for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Quizzes

Due: See unit schedule

Weighting: 25%

The purpose of this assessment task is to continue developing control over Latin grammar and vocabulary, analytical skills, comprehension, and independent thinking. In each of the five electronic grammar quizzes you will be required to answer five questions.

The criteria against which this task will be assessed are accuracy and completeness of the information you present.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at more advanced level
- Recognise and memorise extended Latin vocabulary
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to this level of study
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Employ linguistic metalanguage
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing Latin texts

Prose Compositions

Due: See unit schedule

Weighting: 30%

The purpose of this assessment is to facilitate understanding of Latin grammatical structures. You will be required to translate a series of sentences from English into Latin (five sentences in each of the four assignments). The sentences will test your control over concepts discussed in the lectures and the grammar booklet and (often) illustrated in the unit readings.

The assessment criteria against which this task will be assessed are accuracy, completeness, and technical and stylistic control over the material. A rubric is used for marking this task and its application will be explained in the lectures.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at more advanced level
- Recognise and memorise extended Latin vocabulary
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to this level of study
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing Latin texts

Examination

Due: See unit schedule

Weighting: 35%

The purpose of this assessment is to test general control over unit content. The closed-book examination, which has a duration of two hours plus 10mins reading time, is arranged as 4 questions:

- in Question 1 you will be required to translate from Latin into English three short passages drawn from the unit readings (45% of exam. weighting);
- in Question 2 you will be required to explain specific grammatical features in four short extracts drawn from the unit readings (20% of exam. weighting);
- in Question 3 you will be required to reproduce four of the grammatical paradigms from the grammar booklets for Latin A and Latin B (15% of exam. weighting);
- in Question 4 you will be required to translate four English sentences into Latin (20% of exam. weighting), using constructions studied and vocabulary used in the prose compositions and sample sentences for this unit.

The criteria against which this task will be assessed are accuracy and completeness of the translation in Question 1 and of the responses in Questions 2 and 3 and technical and stylistic control of the translations in Question 4.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at more advanced level
- Recognise and memorise extended Latin vocabulary
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to this level of study
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Employ linguistic metalanguage
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing Latin texts

Delivery and Resources

Technology

This unit employs the following technology

- iLearn
- Echo

The unit has an online presence, through which all unit materials are delivered. Login is via: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>

Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.

For technical support go to: http://mq.edu.au/about_us/offices_and_units/informatics/help

For student quick guides on the use of iLearn go to: http://mq.edu.au/iLearn/student_info/guides.htm

Lecture Times

For lecture times and classrooms please consult: <https://timetables.mq.edu.au/2019/>

Satisfactory Completion

Completion of all Assessment Tasks is required to complete the unit satisfactorily.

Submission and Extensions

Internal students are normally expected to fulfil Participation requirements in class, Externals or others unable (for an acceptable reason) to attend class fulfil Participation requirements via the electronic Discussion Forum. Submit the electronic Quizzes via the unit's iLearn page. Submission of the Prose Compositions is electronic via Turnitin. The Examination is closed-book and administered by the central administration.

Extensions are available on medical grounds and may be requested under other special circumstances. Apply via ask.mq.edu.au

Penalties for Late Submission

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing Latin texts

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Prose Compositions
- Examination

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to this level of study
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing Latin texts
- Analyse the significance of Latin for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:
