Unit description

This unit aims to build students' broad and fundamental appreciation of the diversity, hybridity, positioning and interactions of Asian countries in the globe. The unit facilitates a sophisticated understanding of the increasingly relevant and influential role played by 21st century Asia in a global context, and builds an inter-disciplinary platform for further study of other specific areas. A wide range of issues, which make up today's Asia, will be analysed from political, economic, historical, socio-cultural and religious perspectives. Interactions amongst students from widely diverse backgrounds will maximise opportunities to broaden intercultural awareness of Asia and to nurture engagement with the beliefs, values and activities of other cultures in our closely interrelated globe.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Identify and explain a wide range of issues concerning Asian societies and cultures

Identify and analyze key facts about the state of private and public spheres of socio-cultural life in countries where there is rapid change

Generate informed and original analysis of major issues of Asian societies in their local

and global contexts and express the analysis clearly and precisely in oral and written form

Develop awareness of social justice and the responsibility of the educated and otherwise privileged groups to be proactive to develop better local and global societies

Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant materials and writing up findings with correct referencing

Build interpersonal communication skills through participation in lectures and tutorials

General Assessment Information

Indicative examples of assessment tasks will be available on iLearn.

Late Assessment Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) percent of possible marks will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline.

Assessment Tasks

Tutorial Presentation

Due: Between Weeks 4 and 11

Weighting: 20%

Working in small groups, students prepare a PPT presentation of 10-12 slides and present it in class. The assignment includes a self-/peer-evaluation component.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Generate informed and original analysis of major issues of Asian societies in their local and global contexts and express the analysis clearly and precisely in oral and written form
- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant materials and writing up findings with correct referencing
- Build interpersonal communication skills through participation in lectures and tutorials

Literature Review

Due: Week 6

Weighting: 25%

Students select one of the prescribed sets of scholarly readings and write a critical review of the set.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and analyze key facts about the state of private and public spheres of socio-cultural life in countries where there is rapid change
- Generate informed and original analysis of major issues of Asian societies in their local and global contexts and express the analysis clearly and precisely in oral and written form
- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant materials and writing up findings with correct referencing

Essay

Due: Week 13

Weighting: 40%

Students write an essay in response to a question chosen from a prescribed list.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Generate informed and original analysis of major issues of Asian societies in their local and global contexts and express the analysis clearly and precisely in oral and written form
- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant materials and writing up findings with correct referencing

Delivery and Resources

The unit consists of lectures and tutorials supported by Echo360. Lectures are Live Streamed and students should familiarize themselves with features of ALP (Active Learning Platform), which can be found at <https://students.mq.edu.au/support/study/tools-and-resources/ilearn/ilearn-quick-guides-for-students/lecture-recordings>. More details will be presented in tutorials in Week 1.

Unit reading lists are available through Leganto, the Library's reading list management system. Information on Leganto can be found at <http://libguides.mq.edu.au/leganto/home>. More information will be given in tutorials in Week 1.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant materials and writing up findings with correct referencing

Assessment tasks

- Tutorial Presentation
- Literature Review
- Essay

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Develop awareness of social justice and the responsibility of the educated and otherwise privileged groups to be proactive to develop better local and global societies

Assessment task

- Unit Participation

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Build interpersonal communication skills through participation in lectures and tutorials

Assessment tasks

- Unit Participation
- Tutorial Presentation

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Identify and explain a wide range of issues concerning Asian societies and cultures

Assessment task

- Unit Participation

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and analyze key facts about the state of private and public spheres of socio-cultural life in countries where there is rapid change
- Generate informed and original analysis of major issues of Asian societies in their local and global contexts and express the analysis clearly and precisely in oral and written form

Assessment tasks

- Tutorial Presentation
- Literature Review
- Essay

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant materials and writing up findings with correct referencing

Assessment tasks

- Tutorial Presentation
- Literature Review
- Essay

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Generate informed and original analysis of major issues of Asian societies in their local

and global contexts and express the analysis clearly and precisely in oral and written form

- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant materials and writing up findings with correct referencing

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Develop awareness of social justice and the responsibility of the educated and otherwise privileged groups to be proactive to develop better local and global societies

Assessment task

- Unit Participation

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Develop awareness of social justice and the responsibility of the educated and otherwise privileged groups to be proactive to develop better local and global societies
