Unit description

This unit develops skills at university level in critical reading, textual analysis and writing about literary texts. It equips students with a range of key terms, concepts and practices for further studies in English literature or for any text-based discipline. Short literary texts and weekly critical studies provide focal points for developing detailed and informed ways of interpreting different kinds of narratives. Readings and online discussions treat themes such as identity and memory, and explore narrative concepts such as genre, characterisation and representing the imaginary in literary texts. All enrolment queries should be directed to Open Universities Australia (OUA): see www.open.edu.au

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.open.edu.au/student-admin-and-support/key-dates/>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Demonstrated critical reading habits, interpretive analysis, research, and effective communication, with particular application to the field of English studies

Understanding and ability to describe sites of meaning in various narrative modes

Ability to apply understanding of narrative techniques to literary study and beyond to other situations

Ability to engage in informed critical discussion on unit content with peers and teachers, entertain others' points of view, and to argue a critical position

Delivery and Resources

Unit Requirements and Expectations

It is expected that students will listen to two audio lectures each week, read set primary texts, participate thoroughly in online discussion (making at least 2 informed and engaged discussion forum posts) and submit all items of assessment (two assignments, a research essay and, in week 13, the end-of-unit quiz).

Unit Webpage and Technology Used and Required Online units can be accessed at <http://ilearn.mq.edu.au>. PC and internet access are required. basic computer skills (e.g., internet browsing) and skills in word processing are also a requirement. Please contact teaching staff for any further, more specific requirements. Consult the OUA website for more detailed information on technology requires: <https://www.open.edu.au/getting-started/studying-through-oua/computer-requirements>.

Required Reading

1. Andrew Bennett and Nicholas Royle, This Thing Called Literature (London: Routledge, 2015)
2. William Shakespeare, Macbeth. All students are urged to acquire/use the recommended Norton Critical Edition, ed. Robert S. Miola. 2nd edition. New York and London, 2014, which contains useful additional resources. The first edition will serve just as well if that is more readily available. If you cannot access the Norton Critical edition, please ensure that you use a reputable scholarly edition of the text.
3. David Malouf, Ransom (Sydney: Knopf, 2009).

All other weekly readings have been digitised and are available to download from Macquarie University library's eReserve. Links for all reading can be accessed from the ENGX120 iLearn site.

Recommended Reading

H. Porter Abbott, The Cambridge Introduction to Narrative, 2ed. (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2008).

A list of additional suggestions for critical readings can be found in the Topic 14: Essential Course Resources area of the unit's iLearn site.

Policies and Procedures

Late Submission - applies unless otherwise stated elsewhere in the unit guide

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Extension Request

Special Consideration Policy and Procedure
(<https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policies/special-consideration>)

The University recognises that students may experience events or conditions that adversely affect their academic performance. If you experience serious and unavoidable difficulties at exam time or when assessment tasks are due, you can consider applying for Special Consideration.

You need to show that the circumstances:

1. were serious, unexpected and unavoidable
2. were beyond your control
3. caused substantial disruption to your academic work
4. substantially interfered with your otherwise satisfactory fulfilment of the unit requirements
5. lasted at least three consecutive days or a total of 5 days within the teaching period and prevented completion of an assessment task scheduled for a specific date.

If you feel that your studies have been impacted submit an application as follows:

1. Visit Ask MQ and use your OneID to log in
2. Fill in your relevant details
3. Attach supporting documents by clicking 'Add a reply', click 'Browse' and navigating to the files you want to attach, then click 'Submit Form' to send your notification and supporting documents

4. Please keep copies of your original documents, as they may be requested in the future as part of the assessment process

Outcome

Once your submission is assessed, an appropriate outcome will be organised.

OUA Specific Policies and Procedures

Withdrawal from a unit after the census date

You can withdraw from your subjects prior to the census date (last day to withdraw). If you successfully withdraw before the census date, you won't need to apply for Special Circumstances. If you find yourself unable to withdraw from your subjects before the census date - you might be able to apply for Special Circumstances. If you're eligible, we can refund your fees and overturn your fail grade.

If you're studying Single Subjects using FEE-HELP or paying up front, you can apply online.

If you're studying a degree using HECS-HELP, you'll need to apply directly to Macquarie University.

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central (<https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policy-central>). Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrated critical reading habits, interpretive analysis, research, and effective communication, with particular application to the field of English studies
- Understanding and ability to describe sites of meaning in various narrative modes
- Ability to apply understanding of narrative techniques to literary study and beyond to other situations

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Ability to apply understanding of narrative techniques to literary study and beyond to other situations
- Ability to engage in informed critical discussion on unit content with peers and teachers, entertain others' points of view, and to argue a critical position
