Unit description

The study of curriculum is central to our understanding of educational institutions. It can be focused on the learning of a single student or group of students; on the formal curriculum of a school or other educational workplace; or it can be expansive in its national and international focus. This unit encompasses each of these areas and introduces you to the breadth of curriculum studies. It considers the nature of curriculum, the relationships between curriculum, knowledge and ideology, curriculum planning, curriculum implementation and evaluation, curriculum change and curriculum futures. The learning tasks in the unit focus on developing an understanding of advanced concepts in the curriculum field. Current issues being researched or unfolding in the curriculum literature are also considered with a view to identifying research trends and possibilities.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Demonstrate an understanding of the strategic importance of the curriculum field

Demonstrate an introductory understanding of the breadth of the curriculum field

Demonstrate an understanding of curriculum priorities, change processes and preferred

curriculum futures in an educational jurisdiction

Demonstrate a capacity to identify key themes, trends and issues in curriculum research.

General Assessment Information

Assessment Presentation and Submission Guidelines

Please follow these guidelines when you submit each assignment:

- Allow a left and right-hand margin of at least 2cm in all assignments.
- Please type all assignments using 12-point font and 1.5 spacing.
- All assessments must be submitted through Turnitin in .doc format
- It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that all assessments are successfully submitted through Turnitin.
- Faculty assignment cover sheets are NOT required.

Draft Submissions & Turnitin Originality Reports

- Students may use Turnitin's Originality Report as a learning tool to improve their academic writing if this option is made available in the unit.
- Students are strongly encouraged to upload a draft copy of each assessment to Turnitin at least one week prior to the due date to obtain an Originality Report.
- The Originality Report provides students with a similarity index that may indicate if plagiarism has occurred. Students will be able to make amendments to their drafts prior to their final submission on the due date.
- Generally, one Originality Report is generated every 24 hours up to the due date.

Please note:

- Students should regularly save a copy of all assignments before submission,
- Students are responsible for checking that their submission has been successful and has been submitted by the due date and time

Assignment extensions and late penalties

- In general, there should be no need for extensions except through illness or misadventure that would be categorised as serious and unavoidable disruption according to the University definition of same, see: <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration>
- Applications for extensions must be made via AskMQ according to the Special Consideration policy. Extensions can only be granted if they meet the Special Considerations policy and are submitted via <https://ask.mq.edu.au/>. This will ensure consistency in the consideration of such requests is maintained.

- Late submissions without extension will receive a penalty of 5% reduction of the total possible mark for each day late (including weekends and public holidays). You are reminded that submitting even just 1 day late could be the difference between passing and failing a unit. Late penalties are applied by unit convenors or their delegates after tasks are assessed.
- No assessable work will be accepted after the return/release of marked work on the same topic. If a student is still permitted to submit on the basis of unavoidable disruption, an alternative topic may be set.
- Students should keep an electronic file of all assessments. Claims regarding "lost" assessments cannot be made if the file cannot be produced. It is also advisable to keep an electronic file of all drafts and the final submission on a USB untouched/unopened after submission. This can be used to demonstrate easily that the assessment has not been amended after the submission date.

Requesting a re-assessment of an assignment

If you have evidence that your task has been incorrectly assessed against the grade descriptors you can request a re-mark. To request a re-mark you need to contact the unit convenor within 7 days of the date of return of the assignment and provide a detailed assessment of your script against the task criteria. Evidence from your assignment must be provided to support your judgements.

Note: Failed assessments cannot be re-marked as they are all double-marked as a part of the moderation process.

Please note: The outcome of a re-mark may be a higher/lower or unchanged grade. Grades are standards referenced and effort is NOT a criterion.

University policy on gradingCriteria for awarding grades for assessment tasks

Assignments will be awarded grades ranging from HD to F according to guidelines set out in the University's Grading Policy. The following descriptive criteria are included for your information.

Descriptive Criteria for awarding grades in the unit

In order to meet the unit outcomes and successfully pass this unit, students must make a genuine attempt at all assessment tasks. Where any submitted assessment task is considered to be unsatisfactory in this regard, the highest possible final grade that can be awarded for the unit will be 45.

Students will be awarded grades ranging from HD to F according to guidelines set out in the policy: <https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-plan-ning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policies/assessment-in-effect-from-session-2-2016>

The following generic grade descriptors provide university-wide standards for awarding final grades.

Grade	Descriptor
HD (High Distinction)	Provides consistent evidence of deep and critical understanding in relation to the learning outcomes. There is substantial originality and insight in identifying, generating and communicating competing arguments, perspectives or problem solving approaches; critical evaluation of problems, their solutions and their implications; creativity in application as appropriate to the discipline.
D (Distinction)	Provides evidence of integration and evaluation of critical ideas, principles and theories, distinctive insight and ability in applying relevant skills and concepts in relation to learning outcomes. There is demonstration of frequent originality in defining and analysing issues or problems and providing solutions; and the use of means of communication appropriate to the discipline and the audience.
Cr (Credit)	Provides evidence of learning that goes beyond replication of content knowledge or skills relevant to the learning outcomes. There is demonstration of substantial understanding of fundamental concepts in the field of study and the ability to apply these concepts in a variety of contexts; convincing argumentation with appropriate coherent justification; communication of ideas fluently and clearly in terms of the conventions of the discipline.
P (Pass).	Provides sufficient evidence of the achievement of learning outcomes. There is demonstration of understanding and application of fundamental concepts of the field of study; routine argumentation with acceptable justification; communication of information and ideas adequately in terms of the conventions of the discipline. The learning attainment is considered satisfactory or adequate or competent or capable in relation to the specified outcomes
F (Fail)	Does not provide evidence of attainment of learning outcomes. There is missing or partial or superficial or faulty understanding and application of the fundamental concepts in the field of study; missing, undeveloped, inappropriate or confusing argumentation; incomplete, confusing or lacking communication of ideas in ways that give little attention to the conventions of the discipline.

Results

Results shown in iLearn, or released directly by your Unit Convenor, are not confirmed as they are subject to final approval by the University. Once approved, final results will be sent to your student email address and will be made available in eStudent. For more information visit as k.mq.edu.au.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Online Learning Activities	30%	No	Weeks 1 to 15
Reflective Journals	30%	No	28 April; 7 June
Major Assessment Task	40%	No	19 May

Online Learning Activities

Due: Weeks 1 to 15

Weighting: 30%

Online or face-to face seminars will be conducted during the semester in each of the seven Modules that make up the unit depending on whether you are enrolled as an Online or Evening student. These are integral to the unit and to the development of a learning community within it.. Your contribution to each will be assessed from Module 2. Full details are provided in each Module.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the strategic importance of the curriculum field
- Demonstrate an introductory understanding of the breadth of the curriculum field
- Demonstrate an understanding of curriculum priorities, change processes and preferred curriculum futures in an educational jurisdiction

Reflective Journals

Due: 28 April; 7 June

Weighting: 30%

Reflective Journals are exercises designed to encourage a personalised, deeper, and summative critical reflection grounded in the literature in response to a question set in each of the online discussions in Modules 3-7.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the strategic importance of the curriculum field
- Demonstrate an introductory understanding of the breadth of the curriculum field
- Demonstrate an understanding of curriculum priorities, change processes and preferred curriculum futures in an educational jurisdiction

Major Assessment Task

Due: 19 May

Weighting: 40%

The focus of your major assessment task is determined through individual consultation with the Unit Convenor and within the scope of the unit's learning outcomes. The assessment task enables you to investigate an area in greater depth than is possible in the one module. Being able to identify, justify and discuss possible areas that could provide a focus for a research project is an important way of demonstrating how well you have understood the scope and learning outcomes of An Introduction to Curriculum Studies. Further details are provided in the unit.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the strategic importance of the curriculum field
- Demonstrate an understanding of curriculum priorities, change processes and preferred curriculum futures in an educational jurisdiction
- Demonstrate a capacity to identify key themes, trends and issues in curriculum research.

Delivery and Resources

The modules will assume that you have your own copy of the required texts below as valuable additions to your professional library:

- Brady, L. and Kennedy, K. (2019). Curriculum Construction. Frenchs Forest, Sydney. Pearson. (6th edition)
- Webster, S. and Ryan, A. (2019). Understanding Curriculum. Port Melbourne, Cambridge University Press. (2nd edition)

Books can be ordered from the Co-op Bookshop on campus or via the Bookshop website: <http://www.coop-bookshop.com.au/bookshop/home/homepage.html>.

Graduate Capabilities

PG - Capable of Professional and Personal Judgment and Initiative

Our postgraduates will demonstrate a high standard of discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgment. They will have the ability to make informed choices and decisions that reflect both the nature of their professional work and their personal perspectives.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of the strategic importance of the curriculum field
- Demonstrate an understanding of curriculum priorities, change processes and preferred curriculum futures in an educational jurisdiction
- Demonstrate a capacity to identify key themes, trends and issues in curriculum research.

Assessment tasks

- Reflective Journals
- Major Assessment Task

PG - Discipline Knowledge and Skills

Our postgraduates will be able to demonstrate a significantly enhanced depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content knowledge in their chosen fields.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of the strategic importance of the curriculum field
- Demonstrate an introductory understanding of the breadth of the curriculum field
- Demonstrate an understanding of curriculum priorities, change processes and preferred curriculum futures in an educational jurisdiction
- Demonstrate a capacity to identify key themes, trends and issues in curriculum research.

Assessment tasks

- Online Learning Activities
- Reflective Journals
- Major Assessment Task

PG - Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

Our postgraduates will be capable of utilising and reflecting on prior knowledge and experience, of applying higher level critical thinking skills, and of integrating and synthesising learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments. A characteristic of this form of thinking is the generation of new, professionally oriented knowledge through personal or group-based critique of practice and theory.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an introductory understanding of the breadth of the curriculum field
- Demonstrate an understanding of curriculum priorities, change processes and preferred curriculum futures in an educational jurisdiction
- Demonstrate a capacity to identify key themes, trends and issues in curriculum research.

Assessment tasks

- Online Learning Activities
- Reflective Journals
- Major Assessment Task

PG - Research and Problem Solving Capability

Our postgraduates will be capable of systematic enquiry; able to use research skills to create new knowledge that can be applied to real world issues, or contribute to a field of study or practice to enhance society. They will be capable of creative questioning, problem finding and problem solving.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of curriculum priorities, change processes and preferred curriculum futures in an educational jurisdiction
- Demonstrate a capacity to identify key themes, trends and issues in curriculum research.

Assessment tasks

- Reflective Journals
- Major Assessment Task

PG - Effective Communication

Our postgraduates will be able to communicate effectively and convey their views to different social, cultural, and professional audiences. They will be able to use a variety of technologically supported media to communicate with empathy using a range of written, spoken or visual formats.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an introductory understanding of the breadth of the curriculum field
- Demonstrate an understanding of curriculum priorities, change processes and preferred curriculum futures in an educational jurisdiction
- Demonstrate a capacity to identify key themes, trends and issues in curriculum research.

Assessment tasks

- Online Learning Activities
- Reflective Journals
- Major Assessment Task

PG - Engaged and Responsible, Active and Ethical Citizens

Our postgraduates will be ethically aware and capable of confident transformative action in relation to their professional responsibilities and the wider community. They will have a sense of connectedness with others and country and have a sense of mutual obligation. They will be able to appreciate the impact of their professional roles for social justice and inclusion related to national and global issues

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of the strategic importance of the curriculum field
- Demonstrate an introductory understanding of the breadth of the curriculum field

- Demonstrate an understanding of curriculum priorities, change processes and preferred curriculum futures in an educational jurisdiction
- Demonstrate a capacity to identify key themes, trends and issues in curriculum research.

Changes from Previous Offering

EDUC 703 is updated annually in response to student feedback and developments in the curriculum field.

About this Unit

This unit provides both an introduction to the formal study of curriculum as well as an opportunity to undertake a more in-depth and specialised study of an area of curriculum interest. The nature of curriculum is explored from national and international perspectives. Curriculum design, implementation and change are considered from both theoretical and practical orientations with a focus on contemporary curriculum issues and trends.
