Unit description

Contemporary approaches to curriculum in early childhood education emphasise the importance of the teacher as a curriculum decision maker. This demands that early childhood teachers are conscious of their everyday practice, informed about curriculum content and knowledgeable about the ways that children learn. This unit examines the philosophical and theoretical foundations of contemporary approaches to curriculum and pedagogy beyond technicist approaches to teaching and learning. Students will engage in critical inquiry of intentional teaching and understandings of early childhood pedagogy and curriculum at an advanced level. They will participate in research-based projects to further examine pedagogies in practice.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Explain the origins of curriculum and how this has impacted on contemporary curriculum perspectives in early childhood settings

Analyse a range of international early childhood curriculum documents against contemporary understandings of learning and teaching in early childhood settings

Demonstrate an understanding of how curriculum documents are enacted in early childhood settings

Engage In a research project showing understanding of links between theory and practice

General Assessment Information

Assessment Presentation and Submission Guidelines

Please follow these guidelines when you submit each assignment:

- Allow a left and right-hand margin of at least 2cm in all assignments.
- Please type all assignments using 12-point font and 1.5 spacing.
- All assessments must be submitted through Turnitin in .doc or .pdf format
- It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that all assessments are successfully submitted through Turnitin.
- Faculty assignment cover sheets are NOT required.

Draft Submissions & Turnitin Originality Reports

- Students may use Turnitin's Originality Report as a learning tool to improve their academic writing if this option is made available in the unit.
- Students are strongly encouraged to upload a draft copy of each assessment to Turnitin at least one week prior to the due date to obtain an Originality Report.
- The Originality Report provides students with a similarity index that may indicate if plagiarism has occurred. Students will be able to make amendments to their drafts prior to their final submission on the due date.
- Generally, one Originality Report is generated every 24 hours up to the due date.

Please note:

- Students should regularly save a copy of all assignments before submission,
- Students are responsible for checking that their submission has been successful and has been submitted by the due date and time.

Assignment extensions and late penalties

- In general, there should be no need for extensions except through illness or misadventure that would be categorised as serious and unavoidable disruption according to the University definition of same, see: <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration>
- Applications for extensions must be made via AskMQ according to the Special Consideration policy. Extensions can only be granted if they meet the Special Considerations policy and are submitted via <https://ask.mq.edu.au/>. This will ensure consistency in the consideration of such requests is maintained.
- Late submissions without extension will receive a penalty of 5% reduction of the total possible mark for each day late (including weekends and public holidays). You are reminded that submitting even just 1 day late could be the difference between passing and failing a unit. Late penalties are applied by unit convenors or their delegates after tasks are assessed.
- No assessable work will be accepted after the return/release of marked work on the same topic. If a student is still permitted to submit on the basis of unavoidable disruption, an alternative topic may be set.
- Students should keep an electronic file of all assessments. Claims regarding "lost" assessments cannot be made if the file cannot be produced. It is also advisable to keep an electronic file of all drafts and the final submission on a USB untouched/unopened after submission. This can be used to demonstrate easily that the assessment has not been amended after the submission date.

Requesting a re-assessment of an assignment

If you have evidence that your task has been incorrectly assessed against the grade descriptors you can request a re-mark. To request a re-mark you need to contact the unit convenor within 7 days of the date of return of the assignment and provide a detailed assessment of your script against the task criteria. Evidence from your assignment must be provided to support your judgements.

Note: Failed assessments cannot be re-marked as they are all double-marked as a part of the moderation process.

Please note: The outcome of a re-mark may be a higher/lower or unchanged grade. Grades are standards referenced and effort is NOT a criterion.

University policy on grading

Criteria for awarding grades for assessment tasks

Assignments will be awarded grades ranging from HD to F according to guidelines set out in the University's Grading Policy. The following descriptive criteria are included for your information.

Descriptive Criteria for awarding grades in the unit

In order to meet the unit outcomes and successfully pass this unit, students must make a genuine attempt at all assessment tasks. Where any submitted assessment task is considered to be unsatisfactory in this regard, the highest possible final grade that can be awarded for the unit will be 45.

Students will be awarded grades ranging from HD to F according to guidelines set out in the policy: <https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policies/assessment-in-effect-from-session-2-2016>

The following generic grade descriptors provide university-wide standards for awarding final grades.

Grade	Descriptor
HD (High Distinction)	Provides consistent evidence of deep and critical understanding in relation to the learning outcomes. There is substantial originality and insight in identifying, generating and communicating competing arguments, perspectives or problem solving approaches; critical evaluation of problems, their solutions and their implications; creativity in application as appropriate to the discipline.

D (Distinction)	Provides evidence of integration and evaluation of critical ideas, principles and theories, distinctive insight and ability in applying relevant skills and concepts in relation to learning outcomes. There is demonstration of frequent originality in defining and analysing issues or problems and providing solutions; and the use of means of communication appropriate to the discipline and the audience.
Cr (Credit)	Provides evidence of learning that goes beyond replication of content knowledge or skills relevant to the learning outcomes. There is demonstration of substantial understanding of fundamental concepts in the field of study and the ability to apply these concepts in a variety of contexts; convincing argumentation with appropriate coherent justification; communication of ideas fluently and clearly in terms of the conventions of the discipline.
P (Pass).	Provides sufficient evidence of the achievement of learning outcomes. There is demonstration of understanding and application of fundamental concepts of the field of study; routine argumentation with acceptable justification; communication of information and ideas adequately in terms of the conventions of the discipline. The learning attainment is considered satisfactory or adequate or competent or capable in relation to the specified outcomes
F (Fail)	Does not provide evidence of attainment of learning outcomes. There is missing or partial or superficial or faulty understanding and application of the fundamental concepts in the field of study; missing, undeveloped, inappropriate or confusing argumentation; incomplete, confusing or lacking communication of ideas in ways that give little attention to the conventions of the discipline.

Note: If you fail a unit with a professional experience component the fail grade will be on your transcript irrespective of the timing of the placement.

Withdrawing from this UG Unit

If you are considering withdrawing from this unit, please seek academic advice via <https://ask.mq.edu.au> before doing so as this unit may be a co-requisite or prerequisite for units in the following sessions and may impact on your progression through the degree.

Results

Results shown in iLearn, or released directly by your Unit Convenor, are not confirmed as they are subject to final approval by the University. Once approved, final results will be sent to your student email address and will be made available in eStudent. For more information visit ask.mq.edu.au.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Reviewing the Literature	25%	No	2nd Sept
Report & Discussion Starter	45%	No	30th Sept
Case Study Report	30%	No	8th November

Reviewing the Literature

Due: 2nd Sept

Weighting: 25%

Investigate the historical origins of early childhood curriculum and how these ideas might be reflected in contemporary approaches to pedagogy and practice in working with young children.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Explain the origins of curriculum and how this has impacted on contemporary curriculum perspectives in early childhood settings
- Analyse a range of international early childhood curriculum documents against contemporary understandings of learning and teaching in early childhood settings

Report & Discussion Starter

Due: 30th Sept

Weighting: 45%

Select one contemporary early childhood curriculum approach and identify the underpinning theoretical understandings that shape the approach. Critically examine the role of the teacher in this approach in relation to the Pedagogical Principles and Practice outlined in the EYLF.

Prepare a one-page Discussion Starter - suitable for a staff meeting discussion. This will be uploaded to the iLearn Discussion Board for others to see. By the end of semester, you will have a collection of discussion starters that can be used in your professional practice.

Report 30%

Discussion Starter 15%

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Explain the origins of curriculum and how this has impacted on contemporary curriculum perspectives in early childhood settings
- Analyse a range of international early childhood curriculum documents against contemporary understandings of learning and teaching in early childhood settings
- Demonstrate an understanding of how curriculum documents are enacted in early childhood settings

Case Study Report

Due: 8th November

Weighting: 30%

Visit an early childhood setting and observe the curriculum approach/es utilised. Describe the approach/es and identify the key theoretical ideas that underpin the work of the educators. Document examples of your observations to demonstrate your understanding of the links between theory and practice. Interview the educational leader of the setting and report on his/her role in relation to other educators in supporting and guiding the curriculum. Make some concluding statements about the children's participation in the educational program and the potential of the curriculum approach to enhance children's learning.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of how curriculum documents are enacted in early childhood settings
- Engage In a research project showing understanding of links between theory and practice

Delivery and Resources

ECED831 is delivered in External Mode. The unit content, delivered via unit readings and assignment tasks is supported by:

- Individual consultations with the unit convener (if required)
- A voluntary on-campus session on Saturday 7th September

Unit Web-page There is a website for this unit. Access to this unit is available online through iLearn (ilearn.mq.edu.au). You will need to login using your Macquarie ID. This site is an essential unit resource. You are required to check this website at least twice per week for any announcements. In addition, it has the following features and functions:

- Study resources: including links to required readings
- Assignment details: detailed guidelines for each assessment task
- Assignment submission links: All assignments are submitted via the unit webpage through the turnitin facility
- Discussion pages: for conversation with peers about unit content On-Campus Session.

A Voluntary On-Campus day is provided on Saturday 7th September. The purpose of the on-campus day is to provide deeper discussion and reflection on the unit content. The day will include a focus on content relating to Assignments 2 & 3. Students are encouraged to bring their work in progress or initial thinking to discuss with the Unit Coordinator. Students will be asked to register in advance via iLearn to attend the on-campus session.

Student Workload and Allocation of Time

ECED 831 is worth four credit points and you would usually be expected to allocate about 12 hours a week in study for a four credit point unit over 15 weeks. This would be a total of 180 hours over the semester.

Unit Expectations

- Students are listen to all of the unit lectures and read the relevant readings for each lecture
- All assessment tasks must be submitted.
- In order to receive a passing grade in this unit, you need to meet the following criteria:
 - Have made a serious attempt at passing all pieces of work in order to pass the unit.
 - In order to receive a grade of Pass, your total mark must be at least 50/100. Note: It is not the responsibility of unit staff to contact students who have failed to submit assignments. If you have any missing items of assessment, it is your responsibility to make contact with the unit coordinator.

Electronic Communication

During semester time, communication between staff and students use the following ways:

- Official MQ Student Email Address
- Other iLearn communication functions

It is the student's responsibility to check all electronic communication on a regular weekly basis.

Withdrawing from this PG Unit

If you are considering withdrawing from this unit, please seek academic advice by writing to <http://ask.mq.edu.au> before doing so as this unit may be a co-requisite or prerequisite for units in the following semesters and may impact on your progression through the degree.

Unit Schedule

ECED831 is offered over 15 Weeks. This includes 12 weeks of content - including on-line lectures and seminars, required readings and study tasks. Three weeks of independent study is allocated to enable intensive work on your major assessment tasks.

Graduate Capabilities

PG - Capable of Professional and Personal Judgment and Initiative

Our postgraduates will demonstrate a high standard of discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgment. They will have the ability to make informed choices and decisions that reflect both the nature of their professional work and their personal perspectives.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of how curriculum documents are enacted in early childhood settings

- Engage In a research project showing understanding of links between theory and practice

Assessment tasks

- Report & Discussion Starter
- Case Study Report

PG - Discipline Knowledge and Skills

Our postgraduates will be able to demonstrate a significantly enhanced depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content knowledge in their chosen fields.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Explain the origins of curriculum and how this has Impacted on contemporary curriculum perspectives in early childhood settings
- Analyse a range of international early childhood curriculum documents against contemporary understandings of learning and teaching in early childhood settings
- Demonstrate an understanding of how curriculum documents are enacted in early childhood settings
- Engage In a research project showing understanding of links between theory and practice

Assessment tasks

- Reviewing the Literature
- Report & Discussion Starter
- Case Study Report

PG - Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

Our postgraduates will be capable of utilising and reflecting on prior knowledge and experience, of applying higher level critical thinking skills, and of integrating and synthesising learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments. A characteristic of this form of thinking is the generation of new, professionally oriented knowledge through personal or group-based critique of practice and theory.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Explain the origins of curriculum and how this has Impacted on contemporary curriculum perspectives in early childhood settings

- Analyse a range of international early childhood curriculum documents against contemporary understandings of learning and teaching in early childhood settings
- Demonstrate an understanding of how curriculum documents are enacted in early childhood settings
- Engage In a research project showing understanding of links between theory and practice

Assessment tasks

- Reviewing the Literature
- Report & Discussion Starter
- Case Study Report

PG - Research and Problem Solving Capability

Our postgraduates will be capable of systematic enquiry; able to use research skills to create new knowledge that can be applied to real world issues, or contribute to a field of study or practice to enhance society. They will be capable of creative questioning, problem finding and problem solving.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Explain the origins of curriculum and how this has Impacted on contemporary curriculum perspectives in early childhood settings
- Analyse a range of international early childhood curriculum documents against contemporary understandings of learning and teaching in early childhood settings
- Demonstrate an understanding of how curriculum documents are enacted in early childhood settings
- Engage In a research project showing understanding of links between theory and practice

Assessment tasks

- Reviewing the Literature
- Report & Discussion Starter
- Case Study Report

PG - Effective Communication

Our postgraduates will be able to communicate effectively and convey their views to different social, cultural, and professional audiences. They will be able to use a variety of technologically supported media to communicate with empathy using a range of written, spoken or visual formats.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Explain the origins of curriculum and how this has impacted on contemporary curriculum perspectives in early childhood settings
- Analyse a range of international early childhood curriculum documents against contemporary understandings of learning and teaching in early childhood settings
- Demonstrate an understanding of how curriculum documents are enacted in early childhood settings
- Engage in a research project showing understanding of links between theory and practice

Assessment tasks

- Reviewing the Literature
- Report & Discussion Starter
- Case Study Report

PG - Engaged and Responsible, Active and Ethical Citizens

Our postgraduates will be ethically aware and capable of confident transformative action in relation to their professional responsibilities and the wider community. They will have a sense of connectedness with others and country and have a sense of mutual obligation. They will be able to appreciate the impact of their professional roles for social justice and inclusion related to national and global issues

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of how curriculum documents are enacted in early childhood settings
- Engage in a research project showing understanding of links between theory and practice
