Unit description This unit develops students' abilities to conduct equity valuation for investment purposes. This advanced module introduces the techniques used by equity financial analysts to measure the worth of a company and its investments. Students assume the role of a financial analyst and learn the mechanics of financial valuation by: performing industry and financial analysis, measuring accounting quality, estimating discount rates, forecasting cash flows, and ultimately issuing a buy/hold/sell recommendation on the firm based on the estimated target price.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Working collectively in a group, write a report valuing the equity of a company listed on the Australian Securities Exchange and make corresponding investment recommendations.
2. Evaluate business valuation techniques to determine the most appropriate technique for the specific valuation task.
3. Apply valuation techniques to real world valuation problems.
4. Explain the principles and theory behind each valuation technique

General Assessment Information

Assessment criteria for all assessment tasks will either be provided on the unit iLearn site. It is the responsibility of students to view their marks for each within session assessment on iLearn within 20 working days of posting. If there are any discrepancies, students must contact the unit convenor immediately. Failure to do so will mean that queries received after the release of final results regarding assessment tasks (not including the final exam mark) will not be addressed.
