Unit description

Social entrepreneurship means using business knowledge and tools as well as entrepreneurial principles to address social and environmental challenges. A social entrepreneur is someone who recognises a social problem and uses entrepreneurial principles to organise, create, and manage a venture to make social change. The unit will focus on the knowledge and practices of social entrepreneurship and social sector leadership. It will provide students with knowledge and tools on creating social change and shared value; managing resources; measuring and communicating social impact; multi-sectorial collaboration; and understanding business models for social enterprises. The unit will include class presentations, guest speakers, case studies, group consultancy exercises and multimedia.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Critically reflect on concepts, models and frameworks of social entrepreneurship in order to innovate, initiate and lead successful social enterprises (Leadership)
- Develop services for, assess social impact and report to, and communicate the organisational business model to, a variety of stakeholders, across organisations and cultures (Global Mindset).

Critically reflect on and integrate ethical, social and environmental factors into business decision-making and management practice when developing and managing a social enterprise (Citizenship).

Practically apply tools and frameworks to sustain a social enterprise and create a social impact for the long run (Sustainable Value).

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
In-class participation	10%	No	in each class
Group presentation	15%	No	09/03/2019
Group report	15%	No	16/03/2019
Final individual assignment	60%	Yes	24/03/2019

In-class participation

Due: in each class

Weighting: 10%

Students will be assessed on the quality and quantity of their in-class participation. To receive a high mark in this assessment component, the student needs to participate in the class discussions often, making meaningful contribution to the discussion, which is based on knowledge and readings, while also being respectful to others in class. An excellent participation demonstrates critical analysis that is knowledgeable (not just argumentative), engaging and thought provoking (not just provocative). Asking questions and making comments that contribute to the quality and clarity of the lecture and the discussion will be highly assessed.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically reflect on concepts, models and frameworks of social entrepreneurship in order to innovate, initiate and lead successful social enterprises (Leadership)

Group presentation

Due: 09/03/2019

Weighting: 15%

To create meaningful learning and a social impact, each of the syndicate groups will undertake a consultancy project with one social enterprise. The group will need to choose an existing social enterprise from: the cases studied in class, their own enterprises, a well-known enterprise or other. You can either use publicly available information (e.g. websites, reports etc.) and/or collect data via interviews and surveys. You will need to gain an approval from the lecturer for your SE choice.

Your consultancy project will be presented in class and result in a report, which will be the group assignment. In the last day of this unit, there will be a Syndicate Group Presentation. The presentation will be 30 minutes long, followed by a 15 minute discussion. The presentation will be based on your consultancy project and as such need to follow the same four topics.

The presentation needs to include:

1. Description of the social enterprise
2. A business model canvas (preferably - existing vs. recommended)
3. Analysis of the social enterprise's resources and social impact
4. Discussion of its main challenges
5. Initial ideas on how you are going to address these challenges while using the enterprise's assets and knowledge gained in class
6. A discussion with the class in order to generate additional ideas and solutions

Strive to make your presentation interesting and engaging and to demonstrate knowledge of the SE, while using additional research and knowledge gained in this unit. Use some general models taught in class to position the SE you are presenting, as well as specific models and research related to the challenges you are striving to address. Ask the class specific questions so they can help you effectively.

Your group will need to submit the following files at iLearn (turnitin plagiarism check), on the 7/3/2019 before 4pm:

1. Executive summary. The executive summary should include (in one file):
 1. A title page (with all names and IDs of members),
 2. A one-page summary of the case
 3. References in APA style
2. PowerPoint presentation: your final presentation file, in PPT or PDF. The presentation should include no more than 20 slides, but can include videos and photos. If you use Prezi, please send a PDF file. Please include your group number and case in the file name (e.g., group3_Grameen.ppt). This does not have to be your final version, but it will allow the lecturer to provide some feedback.
3. Group Work Cover sheet, including your names and individual contribution. Here you will need to detail what each one of you has done (e.g. research, PPT file, case etc.).
Please note that if you do not contribute equally to the group report, you will not receive the full mark for this assessment.

Assessment and marking

Each member of the group will receive a mark based on the group performance, as well as on the individual performance during the presentation. The group mark will be given to the group face-to-face on the the same day and will be sent to the group in the following morning. The individual mark will be used for the calculation of your final mark.

Group report

Due: 16/03/2019

Weighting: 15%

The purpose of this assignment is to provide you with an opportunity to expand on your presentation and apply the learning from this unit to a real life social enterprise, address its challenges and assist to create social impact. Based on the same consultancy project as the one in the presentation, the group will write a thorough report of up to 5000 words. The report should include an analysis, a business model; models and concepts learned in class; existing literature, additional research, and solutions.

1) The social enterprise

Analysis:

- Describe the enterprise, its vision and mission, brief history
- Use one social entrepreneurship model to position the social enterprise

Proposal:

- A business model canvas (preferably - existing vs. recommended).

2) Resources

- Discuss the social enterprise's revenue generation strategies and analyse its funding sources
- Detail its human resources, human capital and leadership

Proposal:

- Offer an innovative solution to increase revenue generation

- Propose a way to attract paid and unpaid talent to the organisation and a succession plan

3) Social impact

Analysis:

- Describe the social impact that the enterprise creates/ aims to create
- Detail social impact measurement practices and challenges

Proposal:

- Suggest tools to measure the social impact created by this social enterprise
- Discuss ways in which the enterprise can increase its social impact

4) Main challenges and suggestions for improvement

Proposal:

- Based on the discussions with the enterprise, assess its main challenges
- Offer at least four innovative solutions to address these challenges
- Discuss implementation of these suggestions

The report should be submitted to Debbie.Haski-leventhal@mgsm.edu.au and at iLearn (turnitin plagiarism check) on 16-03-2019 by 5pm. The file submitted should be a word document (not PDF) and should the group number and the name of the social enterprise in the file name (e.g. group3_Grameen Bank.docx). You will need to include a title page with the name of the case, names of all members and students ID. There is no need to include the executive summary again. You will also need to submit a cover sheet detailing the individual contribution of each and every member of the group. Please note that if you do not contribute equally to the group report, you will not receive the full mark for this assessment.

Referencing

Referencing must be in American Psychological Association (APA) style. This means that when referring to an article or book etc., you indicate the author's name followed by the year of publication (Jones, 1989). For multiple authors include all names (Jones, Smith, & Wilson, 1990). Several sources need to be cited in alphabetical order (Bates & Johns, 1992; Dees, 1998).

A reference list should be presented in alphabetical order at the end of the paper according to APA (you can use Google Scholar to find the APA citation of the source). Note that APA style references are used for the reading list of articles at the end of this outline. Further information on APA style is available at <http://libguides.mq.edu.au/referencing/APA>

Group Report Assessment Criteria

Similarly to the group presentation, each member of the group will receive 50% of the mark for this assignment based on the overall performance of the group and 50% based on your individual contribution. In the cover sheet, you will need to detail what role each member of the group had in writing the report. The lecturer could also ask each group member to rate the contribution of other group members which may affect your individual mark (higher or lower).

Comments

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically reflect on concepts, models and frameworks of social entrepreneurship in order to innovate, initiate and lead successful social enterprises (Leadership)
- Develop services for, assess social impact and report to, and communicate the organisational business model to, a variety of stakeholders, across organisations and cultures (Global Mindset).

Final individual assignment

Due: 24/03/2019

Weighting: 60%

This is a hurdle assessment task (see assessment policy for more information on hurdle assessment tasks)

The day after the submission date of the group report, an email will be sent to all the students with three essay-style questions. The purpose of these questions is to assess the knowledge gained through this unit and the ability to reflect on issues related to social entrepreneurship. To answer these questions you will need to use the class readings (textbook and articles), additional academic sources, knowledge gained in class and your own views and reflections.

The word limit is 3000 words, excluding references and appendices. The assignment should be submitted on the iLearn (turnitin plagiarism check) on 24/03/2019 by 5pm. The file submitted must be a word document (not PDF) and include your full name in the file name (e.g. David Smith Final Assignment.docx).

Assessment

A good academic assignment provides a well-written essay, which is well based on the literature, class materials and additional research. You will be assessed on your level of knowledge and understanding, your ability to analyse and reflect on related issues and your ability to combine the two. Please make sure to use the literature and cite it.

You are encouraged to use additional academic sources, but not to copy someone else's ideas from the Internet or from elsewhere. This would lead to immediate failure in the assignment and the subject.

Referencing

Referencing must be in American Psychological Association (APA) style. This means that when referring to an article or book etc., you indicate the author's name followed by the year of publication (Jones, 1989). For multiple authors include all names (Jones, Smith, & Wilson, 1990). Several sources need to be cited in alphabetical order (Bates & Johns, 1992; Dees, 1998).

A reference list should be presented in alphabetical order at the end of the paper according to APA (you can use Google Scholar to find the APA citation of the source). Note that APA style references are used for the reading list of articles at the end of this outline. Further information on APA style is available at <http://www2.liu.edu/cwis/cwp/library/workshop/citapa.htm>

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically reflect on concepts, models and frameworks of social entrepreneurship in order to innovate, initiate and lead successful social enterprises (Leadership)
- Critically reflect on and integrate ethical, social and environmental factors into business decision-making and management practice when developing and managing a social enterprise (Citizenship).

Alignment of this unit with MGSM's mission-driven attributes

- Leadership: social entrepreneurs are often seen as a combination of business leaders and social leaders. They use the principles of transformational leadership to create a vision, communicate a vision, model their vision through their social enterprise and create commitment to the vision.
- Global mindset: "Global Mindset" means the ability to understand and influence people with views unlike one's own. Social entrepreneurs often work with people from other communities, such as through international aid or disadvantaged and marginalised groups. Related issues will be discussed to not only help develop a global mindset, but also to utilise this global mindset to address social problems.
- Citizenship: The unit covers the enhancement of organisational citizenship as well as corporate social responsibility and the community. Through social entrepreneurship and CSR, students will be able to address social problems and demonstrate devotion to global and corporate citizenship.
- Creating sustainable value: the students will be provided with knowledge, tools and resources which would allow them not only to initiate and innovate a social enterprise, but also to sustain it for the long run. Goal achievement of social enterprises and plans beyond will also be discussed.

Attendance Policy (MGSM)

The interactive environment of the classroom is central to the MGSM experience. Students are required to attend the full duration of all classes for the units in which they are enrolled. We recognise that exceptional circumstances may occur, such as unavoidable travel on behalf of your organization or the serious illness or injury of you or a close family member.

Special consideration may be given for a maximum of 20% non-attendance for such circumstances as long as lecturers are contacted in advance, and supporting documentation provided, to request exemption from attendance. Failure to abide by these conditions may result in automatic withdrawal, with academic and/or financial penalty. The full Student Attendance Policy is published in the MGSM Student Handbook at <https://students.mgsm.edu.au/handbook>
