Unit description

An organization's people can be a valuable source of sustained competitive advantage. As such, it has become increasingly important to understand how to effectively manage people by influencing their work attitudes, motivation, and performance-related behaviours. This unit is about people in organizations, focusing on how management practices can enhance people's commitment and productivity at work. Unit content is derived mostly from contemporary theory, research, and practice in organizational behaviour and management disciplines. Through structured learning exercises, students are given the opportunity to apply and practice teamwork and leadership skills with the aim of improving individual, team, and organizational outcomes.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Demonstrate knowledge of classical and contemporary OB and management theory.

Apply organisational behaviour concepts and theories to understand and provide solutions to organisational issues.

Apply strategies that facilitate effective team decision-making, communication, and performance.

Practise giving and receiving constructive and critical feedback

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
In-class Exam	20%	No	Week 8
Case Study Analysis	20%	No	Week 6
Group Project	60%	No	Weeks 8, 9, and 10

In-class Exam

Due: Week 8

Weighting: 20%

In-class Exam Assessment Summary Task Description The in-class quiz will consist of multiple choice questions based on Week 1-7 content. Students need to answer 60-70 questions. Type of Collaboration Individual Submission Please refer to the iLearn Unit page Format Please refer to the iLearn Unit page. Length 60-70 questions Inherent Task Requirements In-class participation required. Late Submission Late submissions will not be marked. No extensions will be granted. Students who do not complete the quiz will be awarded a mark of 0 for the assessment.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

University. Once approved, final results will be sent to your student email address and will be made available in eStudent. For more information visit ask.mq.edu.au or if you are a Global MBA student contact globalmba.support@mq.edu.au

Attendance Policy (MGSM)

The interactive environment of the classroom is central to the MGSM experience. Students are required to attend the full duration of all classes for the units in which they are enrolled. We recognise that exceptional circumstances may occur, such as unavoidable travel on behalf of your organization or the serious illness or injury of you or a close family member.

Special consideration may be given for a maximum of 20% non-attendance for such circumstances as long as lecturers are contacted in advance, and supporting documentation provided, to request exemption from attendance. Failure to abide by these conditions may result in automatic withdrawal, with academic and/or financial penalty. The full Student Attendance Policy is published in the MGSM Student Handbook at <https://students.mgsm.edu.au/handbook>.

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Demonstrate knowledge of classical and contemporary OB and management theory.

Assessment tasks

- In-class Exam
- Case Study Analysis

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate knowledge of classical and contemporary OB and management theory.
- Apply organisational behaviour concepts and theories to understand and provide solutions to organisational issues.

Assessment tasks

- In-class Exam
- Case Study Analysis
- Group Project

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Apply organisational behaviour concepts and theories to understand and provide solutions to organisational issues.

Assessment tasks

- Case Study Analysis
- Group Project

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply strategies that facilitate effective team decision-making, communication, and performance.
- Practise giving and receiving constructive and critical feedback

- Group Project

Research & Practice, Global contexts & Sustainability

1. This unit draws on extensive research from sources outside the textbook. Students will be provided with additional research articles from every week to allow them to considerably expand their knowledge of OB.
2. Conducting research independently is strongly encouraged for this unit and is rewarded
3. Cultural differences in work practices between countries will be extensively discussed and students will be asked to elaborate on work practices in their respective countries. OB theories from non-Western perspectives will be integrated in the lectures, where available.
4. Issues of sustainability and ethics will be discussed during the first three weeks of the semester and in other weeks as they relate to other OB topics.
