General Information

Unit convenor and teaching staff Peter Edwell peter.edwell@mq.edu.au
Credit points 10
Prerequisites 10cp from AHIX unit at 1000 level and 20cp from AHIX units at 2000 level
Corequisites
Co-badged status
Unit description This unit is an in-depth study of Rome's attempts to defend itself against a resurgent Iran in the late-third and early-fourth centuries CE. Students have the chance to study both military and diplomatic history of the two great empires, as well as religious change. Archaeological evidence is used extensively to help us to reconstruct our knowledge of Roman defensive systems.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Analyse and express judgement about the history of Rome's Persian Wars from the 3rd-4th centuries AD in oral and written form.

ULO2: Demonstrate skills in reading ancient texts from a variety of historical and cultural contexts, with particular attention to critically identifying issues involved in interpretation of culturally-distant texts.

ULO3: Demonstrate research skills supporting independent location and evaluation of information, suitable for research at university level and for other professional situations.

ULO4: Demonstrate written and oral communication skills.

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.

Find out more about the Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) and potential impacts on staff and students

General Assessment Information

Submission of Written Assignments

Online Quiz: the quiz will be available on the iLearn unit website.

Submission of Tutorial Paper and Essay: These assignments are to be submitted through TurnItIn via the iLearn unit website.

Policies on Written Assessment: Extensions, Late/Early Submission, Length

Extensions can only be granted before the assessment is due and if an application is made via a Special Consideration request.

Late Submission Policy

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests - or for journal notes collected randomly in tutorial classes.

Length policy: Essays exceeding or falling short of the specified word lengths will attract a penalty: divergences of more than 10% will attract a penalty of 10%.

Assignment tasks handed in early will be marked and returned with other papers (i.e. not before the due date).

For Special Consideration Policy see under Policies and Procedures.

IMPORTANT NOTE ON FINAL MARKS

Please note with respect to the marks you receive for work during the session that the marks given are indicative only; final marks will be determined after moderation. See further the note on Results in the Policies and Procedures section below.

EXTENSION REQUESTS VIA SPECIAL CONSIDERATION REQUEST

Extensions for the written assignments will only be granted in the case of overwhelming personal circumstances or medical situation, with supporting documentation (e.g. medical certificate, counsellor statement). Barring genuine major emergencies, extensions must be sought in advance of the due date, not retrospectively. Please keep multiple back-ups of work on your computer. Bear in mind that all written assessment (document studies and essays) should be begun long before the due date; generally, an extension can't be given because of a problem which arises a day or two before the due date. If it is necessary to request an extension, please do so before the due date.

Where an extension is granted, proof of work already undertaken already may be required. Generally extensions will be made on a day-for-day basis (i.e. a medical certificate or counsellor statement for three days will be basis for three days' extension).

Remember, restrictions on extensions exist not because your lecturer is mean and sadistic, but for fairness to other students who have worked to submit their items within the common restrictions.

Please see under "Policies and Procedures" for policies on academic honesty/plagiarism.

Delivery and Resources

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Any references to on-campus delivery below may no longer be relevant due to COVID-19.

Please check here for updated delivery information: https://ask.mq.edu.au/account/pub/display/unit_status

Delivery and Resources

Staff Contact details

The convenor and main lecturer for this unit is Dr Peter Edwell (Level 2, Australian Hearing Hub, e-mail address: peter.edwell@mq.edu.au).

Please note: Apart from the first lecture which will act as an introduction, lectures in this unit are recorded only and will not be delivered live. It is very important to listen to the recorded lectures because weekly assessable quizzes are based on the material covered in the recorded lectures.

Required Unit Materials

The only required book purchase for this unit is M.H. Dodgeon & S.N.C. Lieu, The Roman Eastern Frontier and the Persian Wars: AD 226 - 363, 1994, London & New York, Routledge. The book can be purchased new or second hand (try the website www.abebooks.com for second hand copies). It is essential to have access to the book because it forms the basis of most tutorials/discussions during the course of the semester. Please note that the book is also available in full in electronic format via Multisearch on the Macquarie University Library website. I would encourage you to have a physical copy of the book.
