Unit description

This unit covers the legal context in which damages and other financial remedies can be quantified. Students will analyse the role of the forensic accountant in the assessment and calculation of loss and damage in relation to negotiation and litigation of disputes. Areas covered include damages for breach of contract, and in negligence, together with the application of other financial remedies such as an account of profits. The unit also focuses on loss and damage in relation to specialised areas such as intellectual property disputes. By the conclusion of the unit students will have developed a good understanding of the legal principles underpinning the quantification of damages and will be able to use and apply relevant techniques in relation to the assessment and calculation of damages and other financial remedies.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Examine the legal principles relevant to the quantification of damages.

ULO2: Identify and apply techniques commonly used in the quantification of damages.

ULO3: Differentiate between damages and other financial remedies.

ULO4: Analyse relevant issues in the assessment of damages and the calculation of compensation in relation to specific areas including intellectual property, insurance, and family law

ULO5: Investigate and review issues relevant to the preparation and use of experts reports in the context of the calculation and quantification of damages.

Late Submission of Assessment

Late Submission(s)

Where assessment is to be submitted through Turnitin, late assessment must also, where applicable, be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 20% penalty). Late submissions will not be accepted after solutions have been discussed and/or made available. This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.
