Unit description

This unit covers key concepts and issues in language testing and provides students with principles and techniques for designing and evaluating language tests and assessment tasks. Functions of language tests, models of language proficiency, assessment of language skills and components, and frame of reference for interpreting test scores are among the topics discussed in this unit. The unit also focuses on other issues such as test usefulness framework and language tests in social contexts. Overall, the aim of the unit is to develop assessment literacy in current or future teachers.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Explain key terms and concepts in language testing and assessment including a range of purposes for assessment

ULO2: Critically evaluate issues and challenges in assessing language skills and components

ULO3: Identify and communicate key features of quality assessment to a professional audience

ULO4: Apply quality assessment features to a language tests and assessment tasks to evaluate their usefulness

ULO5: Demonstrate an in-depth understanding of the main concepts, purposes, and procedures in language testing

General Assessment Information

Late submission

- If assignments are submitted after the due date without an approved extension, they are deemed late. Late submissions will receive a 5% per day penalty and will not be marked if more than 2 weeks late.
- All assignments submitted after the deadline, regardless of the reason, will be marked and returned at a date determined by the unit convenor.
- Extensions cannot continue beyond the start of the following semester, and students should be aware that long extensions may impact graduation dates.
- Extensions will only be given in special circumstances and can be requested by completing the Special Consideration request at ask.mq.edu.au and providing the required supporting documentation.

For more information on Special Consideration, see the university website <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration>

For more detailed information about assessment tasks please refer to the Unit Guide in iLearn.
