Unit description

Organisations have an ethical and legal responsibility to safeguard customer data in a constantly evolving cyber security environment. This unit is designed for students to gain an understanding of cyber security governance frameworks and ethical issues relating to the complex issues relating to cyber security. The primary objectives of the unit are for students to be able to evaluate cyber security trade-offs, use relevant governance frameworks to develop a cyber security road map and to be able to examine and provide recommendations for cyber security ethical dilemmas.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Evaluate the trade-offs between cyber security, cost/resources and business opportunities/competitive advantage.

ULO2: Develop a cyber security road map for a specific organisation.

ULO3: Explain the governance principles and frameworks relevant to cyber security.

ULO4: Examine and provide recommendations for potential ethical dilemmas of the work of cyber security experts.

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.

Find out more about the Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) and potential impacts on staff and students

General Assessment Information

Late Submission(s): “Late assessment must also be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 20% penalty). Late submissions will not be accepted after solutions have been discussed and/or made available. This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.”

Delivery and Resources

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Any references to on-campus delivery below may no longer be relevant due to COVID-19.

Please check here for updated delivery information: https://ask.mq.edu.au/account/pub/display/unit_status

There are four weekend workshops for this unit:

Week 1 (Sunday 1 March 2020)

Week 5 (Sunday 29 March 2020)

Week 9 (Sunday 10 May 2020)

Week 12 (Sunday 31 May 2020)

Students will work through the material each week on the iLearn website including discussion forums and weekly assessment tasks. Students will prepare for the four workshops by engaging with the material prior to attending.
