Unit description

Marketing research is a key activity of successful organizations, enabling them to learn about consumers and markets. This knowledge helps organizations to identify potential opportunities in the market and make strategic decisions that support and sustain their competitiveness.

This unit equips students with knowledge about the role and processes of marketing research.

The focus of the unit is on developing students' skills to identify appropriate marketing research techniques to design and implement marketing research projects that solve marketing problems. In the unit, students gain knowledge of statistical software to analyze data. Students also learn how to interpret statistical output to make marketing decisions and communicate their findings through oral and written communication.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Explain and evaluate marketing research theories and concepts to identify marketing problems.

ULO2: Apply marketing research concepts and techniques to solve marketing problems in collaboration both as an individual and as a group.

ULO3: Use statistical software to analyse and interpret marketing information and communicate findings orally and in writing.

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.

Find out more about the Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) and potential impacts on staff and students

General Assessment Information

Late assessment submissions must also be submitted through the appropriate submission link in iLearn. No extensions will be granted unless an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late. Late submissions will not be accepted after solutions have been discussed and/or made available.

Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

Delivery and Resources

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Any references to on-campus delivery below may no longer be relevant due to COVID-19.

Please check here for updated delivery information: https://ask.mq.edu.au/account/pub/display/unit_status

Classes

- 3 hours face-to-face teaching per week consisting of: 1 x 1.5 hours lecture and 1 x 1.5 hours tutorial/lab exercises. Tutorials commence in Week 2
- The timetable for classes can be found on the University website at:
<http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>

Required and Recommended Texts and/or Materials

Prescribed text:

- D'Alessandro, Lowe, Winzar, Zikmund, Babin (2017) Marketing Research: 4th Asia-Pacific Edition with Student Resource Access. Cengage: ISBN 9780170369824

Recommended texts:

- Kirkpatrick & Feeney (2016) A Simple Guide to IBM SPSS Statistics - version 23.0. Cengage: ISBN9781305877719
- Allen, Bennett, and Heritage. (2014), SPSS Statistics Version 22- A Practical Guide, 3ed. Cengage: ISBN-10: 0-17-034897-0

They are also available in the Macquarie Library.

Technology Used and Required

- Students will need to have access to a personal computer, with access to the Internet and word processor software.
- In laboratories, we will use MS-Word, MS-Excel, and SPSS statistical software.

Unit Web Page

- The web page for this unit can be found at: iLearn <http://ilearn.mq.edu.au>
- All announcements and resources will be available on the web site. Resource materials include lecture slides, practice questions, case studies and practice exam questions for both the within-semester and final exams. There is also a forum for student interaction and contact with faculty. You should consult the course Website several times per week for messages and updates.

Learning and Teaching Activities

This unit is taught using lectures and tutorials.

- Lectures serve to highlight key topics and elaborate on important or difficult topics. They are not a summary of, or a substitute for, the textbook or other resources.
- Tutorials serve to give students practice in applying concepts and developing skills in critical and logical thinking, information gathering and analysis.

Students are expected to read in advance of lectures, and participate in all lecture presentations. There is also an applied marketing research project assisting students to apply concepts introduced in course to the marketing environment. This will be introduced within the lecture presentations.

Qualtrics

Qualtrics is the #1 online questionnaire tool in the world.

Satisfactory Completion of Unit

- It is normally expected that students attempt all assessment tasks for this unit. Students are required to accumulate at least 50% of the total marks possible in order to satisfactorily pass this unit.
