Unit description

This full-year unit provides students enrolled in the Master of Clinical Audiology with an opportunity to undertake a supervised original research project. Students enrolled in this unit will be required to attend the first four lectures of CAUD8012 Research Design Skills to assist with the development of their research project.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO2: choose appropriate and relevant quantitative and qualitative research methods

ULO1: successfully critique research papers

ULO3: develop a research proposal in the form of a grant application, incorporating understanding of research methods and appropriate analyses

ULO4: demonstrate skills in data collection and to organise, analyze and write up of research for publication in various formats

ULO5: report research in a professional manner consistent with a conference presentation

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Task Procedure

The procedure for the handling of late submission of assessment tasks is as follows:

- Extensions will only be granted on documented evidence of significant disruption to your studies and can be requested by completing a Special Consideration request via ask.mq.edu.au with the requisite supporting documentation.
- Unless you have been granted an extension under special consideration, a penalty of 5% of the total marks for the assessment task per day (with the weekend counting as one day) will apply to late submissions.
- Unless otherwise negotiated, assessment tasks will not be accepted at all AFTER the date on which the marked assignments are returned to students in the unit.
