Unit description

Marketing is the coordinated and integrated efforts of an organisation to satisfy relevant customer needs and achieve organisational goals. It involves a systematic process whereby opportunities are identified and strategic steps are implemented. New techniques, tools and technologies are constantly being adopted by marketers, leading to a new marketing environment that demands greater efficiency and effectiveness to market products, services and brands. This unit develops students' knowledge of marketing concepts and frameworks. Students will develop skills to apply marketing concepts to address marketing issues. Students will also practise producing a marketing plan in collaboration with peers.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Explain the concepts and principles which underpin the discipline of marketing

ULO2: Analyse and apply marketing concepts in dealing with practical marketing issues

ULO3: Produce a marketing plan in collaboration with peers

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.

Find out more about the Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) and potential impacts on staff and students

General Assessment Information

Late assessment submissions must also be submitted through the appropriate submission link in iLearn. No extensions will be granted unless an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late. Late submissions will not be accepted after solutions have been discussed and/or made available.

Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

Delivery and Resources

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Any references to on-campus delivery below may no longer be relevant due to COVID-19.

Please check here for updated delivery information: https://ask.mq.edu.au/account/pub/display/unit_status

TEACHING AND LEARNING STRATEGY

From Year 2020, the unit is delivered in a combination of weekly seminars/lectures (1 1/2 hour) and workshops (1 1/2 hours). Students are expected to be active and engaged learners, contributing fully to workshop activities and discussions. Learning activities include individual and group tasks that are to be completed during private study and in the workshops.

Students need to read in advance of seminar sessions/workshops, complete preparatory work, be prepared to work in small groups and discuss the materials assigned.

The seminar/lecture notes will be posted on iLearn at <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au>.

The recording (video or audio) of lectures/seminars is not permitted.

CLASSES

- There are 3 hours of face-to-face classes each week.

- The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at:
<http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>

- Attendance is important and attendance will be taken in class.
- Students are expected to arrive on time and not to leave until the class ends.
