Unit description

In today's changing marketplace, with firms facing intense competition and changing customer demands, firms need to scan the market for business opportunities. Orchestrating the right combination of strategies for expansion, extension, and diversification, as well as choosing the right business environment to compete in, are important to achieve organisational goals. This unit develops practical competencies to create and sustain superior performance in the market through marketing strategy. It focuses on two crucial issues in marketing strategy: identifying target markets and creating differential advantages. The unit equips students with practical skills to develop marketing within firms as a strategic force rather than just as an operational department.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Synthesise marketing theories to creatively formulate and implement marketing strategies that respond to market opportunities.

ULO2: Assess and critically analyse information relevant to strategic marketing decisions.

ULO3: Communicate ideas to potential stakeholders individually and in a group setting to address marketing strategy challenges.

ULO4: Synthesise literature streams and conduct a research project

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.
