Unit description

This unit examines the principles of civil and criminal procedure in New South Wales. The unit canvasses general principles of civil procedure, the nature of adversarial disputation, case management, pre-litigation issues and protocols, and pre-trial procedures of originating process, gathering of evidence for trial, class actions and the conduct and disposal of civil proceedings. Select topics in criminal procedure, such as classification of offences, police powers and bail, the conduct of criminal trials and sentencing will be covered. Themes of the unit concern procedural fairness, access to justice and the balance between efficiency and individual rights.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Explain, apply and critique the principles and stages of civil and criminal procedure

ULO2: Display legal advocacy skills

ULO3: Apply statutory interpretation to problems of civil and criminal procedural law

ULO4: Communicate an integrated body of procedural law knowledge both orally and in writing

ULO5: Analyse civil and criminal procedural law in its historical, social and legal context

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.

Find out more about the Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) and potential impacts on staff and students

General Assessment Information

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments: the online quizzes and the timed civil procedure hypothetical case task.

Word limits will be strictly applied and work above the word limit will not be marked.

All assessments in the unit are to be submitted electronically. Plagiarism detection software is used in this unit. Any instances of plagiarism will be referred to the Faculty of Arts' Hearings Committee for disciplinary action. This may have adverse consequences for students wishing to be admitted as a solicitor after graduation. Students who are unclear as to the definition of plagiarism should re-read the Academic Integrity Policy (link below in Policies and Procedures).

For the Court Observation Assignment, students are required to complete and submit a Court Attendance Log. Any deliberate inaccuracies in this log will constitute fabrication under the Academic Integrity Policy (link below in Policies and Procedures). Any instances of fabrication will be referred to the Faculty of Arts' Hearings Committee for disciplinary action. This may have adverse consequences for students wishing to be admitted as a solicitor after graduation.

Rubrics will be made available on iLearn. The convenors moderate all assessments. All Fail essays and take-home examinations are double marked.
