Unit description

This unit provides students the opportunity to undertake a research project/internship supervised by leaders in the area of molecular sciences or radiopharmaceutical science.

Students will acquire research skills, including literature searching, project planning, experimental design, data analysis and scientific communication. Interested students meeting the eligibility criteria should discuss their research interests with the unit convenor.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Conduct research to solve problems in areas relevant to molecular sciences or radiopharmaceutical science.

ULO2: Use laboratory skills common in molecular sciences or radiopharmaceutical science and conduct laboratory work in a safe and responsible manner.

ULO3: Collect, record and critically interpret their research findings.

ULO4: Critically analyse and interpret published literature of relevance to their research.

ULO5: Communicate in written and oral format their research findings to scientific audiences.

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.

Find out more about the Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) and potential impacts on staff and students

General Assessment Information

Review and Research Plan

You will develop a literature review and research/internship plan for submission to your supervisor by week 4. Feedback will be given on the report by the supervisor.

Research report

The research report will be examined by two examiners. Their marks will contribute (37.5% each). The Supervisor should contact potential examiners for their availability and provide their contact details to the unit convenor at the beginning of week 11.

The MOLS8902 report can be submitted either as a dissertation (Option 1) or as a scientific manuscript suitable for publication (Option 2). Please discuss with your supervisor the most suitable format for your report.

The Supervisor will also provide to the unit convenor a mark /20% and accompanying report on the overall research potential of the student within MOLS8902. This will include marks toward the quality of research conducted by the student, and their ability to understand and communicate in a scientifically literate manner the research problem (incorporating a review of the relevant literature), the results and discussion of the research and coherent conclusions.

Seminar

A 20-min seminar presentation to the Department will be scheduled during week 14, to give the student an opportunity to present research aims and outcomes.
