Unit description This unit aims to teach the fundamentals of critical thinking and reasoning. Students learn how to construct, analyse and critically evaluate arguments; how to detect common fallacies in reasoning; and how to think logically and creatively. We teach these skills by developing practical techniques for the evaluation of reasoning, and applying them to arguments from business, law, science, politics, philosophy and the media. Critical thinking skills are invaluable across all disciplines, and will benefit students in academic contexts and in life beyond university.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Recognise the structure of arguments, and represent that structure in a clear standardised form.

ULO2: Differentiate between types of reasoning and the methods of evaluation appropriate to each.

ULO3: Appraise the arguments of others and represent them in a clear and standardised form.

ULO4: Construct well-reasoned arguments of their own.

ULO5: Apply the skills of critical analysis to arguments from a variety of contexts and disciplines.

General Assessment Information

Unless a Disruption to Studies request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Online Quiz One	10%	No	Week 3
Personal Argument	25%	No	4/1/2021
Peer Review	10%	No	17/1/2021
Online Quiz Two	10%	No	Week 6
Final Scenario Report	35%	No	22/1/2021
Online Engagement	10%	No	Throughout

Online Quiz One

Assessment Type ¹: Quiz/Test

Indicative Time on Task ²: 15 hours

Due: Week 3

Weighting: 10%

An online multiple-choice quiz which you will take through the unit website. You should be able to complete the quiz in around 30 minutes, but an hour is allocated to accommodate those who may need extra time for whatever reason.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise the structure of arguments, and represent that structure in a clear standardised form.
- Differentiate between types of reasoning and the methods of evaluation appropriate to each.
- Apply the skills of critical analysis to arguments from a variety of contexts and disciplines.

Personal Argument

Assessment Type ¹: Reflective Writing

Indicative Time on Task ²: 10 hours

Due: 4/1/2021

Weighting: 25%

A short piece of reflective writing which you will use to standardise a short argument representing your own views on a socially significant issue.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise the structure of arguments, and represent that structure in a clear standardised form.
- Differentiate between types of reasoning and the methods of evaluation appropriate to each.
- Construct well-reasoned arguments of their own.
- Apply the skills of critical analysis to arguments from a variety of contexts and disciplines.

Peer Review

Assessment Type ¹: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task ²: 4 hours

Due: 17/1/2021

Weighting: 10%

You will review the anonymised arguments (from the Personal Argument assignment) of five of your fellow students. You will answer a series of multiple choice questions about each of these arguments, and give a short comment on each paper. Your mark will be determined by how well you review fits with those of your peers and online tutors.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Appraise the arguments of others and represent them in a clear and standardised form.
- Apply the skills of critical analysis to arguments from a variety of contexts and disciplines.

Online Quiz Two

Assessment Type ¹: Quiz/Test

Indicative Time on Task ²: 15 hours

Due: Week 6

Weighting: 10%

An online multiple-choice quiz which you will take through the unit website. You should be able to complete the quiz in around 30 minutes, but an hour is allocated to accommodate those who may need extra time for whatever reason.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Differentiate between types of reasoning and the methods of evaluation appropriate to each.
- Construct well-reasoned arguments of their own.

Final Scenario Report

Assessment Type ¹: Report

Indicative Time on Task ²: 40 hours

Due: 22/1/2021

Weighting: 35%

The Final Scenario Report assignment requires you use all the skills you have acquired throughout the course from Topics 1-12 to write a report analysing an argument and providing guidance and material for a counter-response.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise the structure of arguments, and represent that structure in a clear standardised form.
- Differentiate between types of reasoning and the methods of evaluation appropriate to each.
- Appraise the arguments of others and represent them in a clear and standardised form.
- Construct well-reasoned arguments of their own.
- Apply the skills of critical analysis to arguments from a variety of contexts and disciplines.

Online Engagement

Assessment Type ¹: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task ²: 18 hours

Due: Throughout

Weighting: 10%

Students will review their understanding of particular topics by taking short online “self assessment” tasks. When students have reached a sufficient level of understanding on these tasks they will gain access to an online podcast which they should listen to, and engage with through comment and discussion in a related online forum.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise the structure of arguments, and represent that structure in a clear standardised form.

- Differentiate between types of reasoning and the methods of evaluation appropriate to each.
- Appraise the arguments of others and represent them in a clear and standardised form.
- Construct well-reasoned arguments of their own.
- Apply the skills of critical analysis to arguments from a variety of contexts and disciplines.

¹ If you need help with your assignment, please contact:

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

PHIL1037/PHIX1037 is run as an integrated unit for students enrolled directly through Macquarie University (PHIL1037) and students enrolled through Open Universities Australia (PHIX1037). It is fully online, and is delivered through the unit iLearn site, which contains a wide range of resources including lectures, course notes, exercises with solutions, online discussion facilities and so on. You do not have to buy any textbook related to this course.

A PC/laptop and Internet access are required. Basic computer skills (e.g., internet browsing) and skills in word processing are also a requirement. Please consult teaching staff for any further, more specific requirements.

You are expected to keep up with the unit material on a weekly basis, making use of the facilities available, and are strongly encouraged to seek help from your tutor or convenor if you are having any problems. Many of you will be taking this as one of your first units, and we are keen to support you to make it as useful and enjoyable an experience as possible.

All students are encouraged to make use of the discussion facilities within the iLearn site to discuss course material. The discussion forum will be monitored by your tutor, who will try to answer questions as needed, but we encourage you all to help each other out on the board as well.

You are expected to complete all assessment tasks, as detailed above.

NOTE: This is an intensive unit

Please remember that as the Session 3 unit is run intensively, you will need to allow at least twice as much time to work on it as you would for an ordinary unit. In most weeks, two ordinary weeks of content are covered in one week. If you find you are having trouble, please contact one of the teaching staff.
