Unit description

This unit enables students to understand and analyse the powerful discourse of strategic management, drawing upon research across the fields of management, organisation studies, and strategy to examine the discipline. Strategic management is addressed in terms of its economic, social, political, and ethical effects in today's organisational world. Specifically, the unit aims to develop a capacity to think strategically about an organisation and its macro environment, industry environment, and competitive position.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Critically assess the nature and origins of strategic management concepts and theories.

ULO2: Identify and analyse strategic issues in a management context.

ULO3: Apply tools of strategic management to address contemporary management issues and challenges.
