Unit description

This unit has two central themes: (1) How to think systematically and strategically about aspects of managing an organisation's international human assets, and (2) What really needs to be done to implement policies and to achieve a competitive international advantage. The unit will examine the difficulties of blending of exogenous and endogenous factors in more than one country while planning and coordinating vital human resource policies and practices.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Assess the challenges facing multinational corporations when implementing HRM practices in various international settings.

ULO2: Evaluate the impact of contextual factors on the management of people in multinational corporations.

ULO3: Research and compare HRM policies and practices in various countries.

ULO4: Develop management solutions for implementing HRM practices in an international context.
