Unit description

This unit introduces students to fundamental skills and concepts in intelligence studies – counterintelligence, and performance evaluation – while providing students with the opportunity to critically reflect on the structure and function of the Australian intelligence community (loosely defined). Students will apply open-source intelligence (OSINT) collection and analysis techniques to elements of the Australian intelligence community and proceed to evaluate the effect and effectiveness of Australia’s intelligence apparatus.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Critique contemporary literature relating to the concepts of intelligence policy and performance Evaluation.

ULO2: Demonstrate higher order communication skills including the ability to formulate sustained, persuasive and original written and oral arguments.

ULO3: Model academic research skills, particularly the ability to select sources appropriately to integrate knowledge from diverse sources, to critically evaluate its significance and relevance, synthesise material and present finding logically, rationally and lucidly.

ULO4: Model intelligence collection and analysis skills, particularly the ability to select and evaluate sources appropriately to produce an effective intelligence assessment.

ULO5: Evaluate how the intelligence function fits within the dynamic Australian national security context.
