Unit description

This unit simulates actual conference situations where students are able to familiarise themselves with all the procedures of different conference genres, and practice conference interpreting in both consecutive and simultaneous modes in front of live audiences. This unit not only gives students the opportunity to learn how to prepare for and execute conference interpretations, but also provides them with opportunities to develop skills in relay interpreting in multiple languages during conference proceedings.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Demonstrate sound knowledge of various kinds of conference interpreting equipment and their usage, conference procedures, requirements, genres and settings and parties involved in conference organizing;

ULO2: Skillfully leverage all available resources in preparation for different types of conference interpreting assignments in line with the specific requirements;

ULO3: Apply linguistic, cultural, psycho-cognitive and communicative skills, strategies and knowledge to solve various problems and cope with challenges arising before, during and after conferences are held;

ULO4: Act as a professional and ethical interpreter in dealing with different situations related to conference interpreting and show a profound understanding of the importance to working together with all parties involved in conference interpreting assignments;

ULO5: Show competence in delivering services in all modes of interpretation, carry out post-conference performance analysis and work out ways of further improvement.

General Assessment Information

Assessment submission

Assessments are submitted to Turnitin as a matter of course, and if required, to a second platform to suit the medium. Instructions for submitting assessments via Turnitin are available here: <https://students.mq.edu.au/support/study/tools-and-resources/ilearn/ilearn-quick-guides-for-students>

How to apply for a late submission of an assignment

All requests for special consideration, including extensions, must be submitted via <https://ask.mq.edu.au/> and provide suitable supporting documentation. Contact your unit convenor first for advice, especially in the case of an emergency or if you are unsure about the extension policy.

Late Assignment Submission

- Late submissions without an extension will receive a penalty of 5% of the total mark available for the assignment per day
- Late submission of an assignment without an extension will not be permitted after marks have been released to the rest of the class.
- Extensions will only be given in special circumstances, and can be requested by completing the Special Consideration request at ask.mq.edu.au and providing the requisite supporting documentation. For more information on Special Consideration, see the university website <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration>
- Assignments submitted after the deadline, regardless of the reason, will be marked and returned at a date determined by the unit convenor.
- Extensions cannot continue beyond the start of the following semester except under exceptional circumstances, and students should be aware that long extensions may impact graduation dates.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Portfolio	20%	No	Week 13
Reflective Journal	40%	No	Week 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 9 and 10
Final Examination	40%	No	Week 14

Portfolio

Assessment Type ¹: Portfolio

Indicative Time on Task ²: 40 hours

Due: Week 13

Weighting: 20%

Students are required to submit a portfolio via iLearn at the end of the semester to demonstrate what they have done as preparation for each of the mock conference interpreting assignments, including glossaries compiled, background information collected including profiles of speakers, conferences, speeches and articles written by or on the speakers, conferences themes, and other related information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate sound knowledge of various kinds of conference interpreting equipment and their usage, conference procedures, requirements, genres and settings and parties involved in conference organizing;
- Skillfully leverage all available resources in preparation for different types of conference interpreting assignments in line with the specific requirements;
- Act as a professional and ethical interpreter in dealing with different situations related to conference interpreting and show a profound understanding of the importance to working together with all parties involved in conference interpreting assignments;

Reflective Journal

Assessment Type ¹: Reflective Writing

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: Week 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 9 and 10

Weighting: 40%

Students are required to submit ten reflective journals via iLearn throughout the unit. Each journal entry shall be no less than 300 words, explaining how they have prepared for each of the mock conference interpreting assignments, the coping strategies adopted, the rationale for such and the outcomes. Students are also encouraged to annotate on any solutions to various challenges arising from the assignments.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate sound knowledge of various kinds of conference interpreting equipment and their usage, conference procedures, requirements, genres and settings and parties involved in conference organizing;
- Apply linguistic, cultural, psycho-cognitive and communicative skills, strategies and knowledge to solve various problems and cope with challenges arising before, during and after conferences are held;
- Act as a professional and ethical interpreter in dealing with different situations related to conference interpreting and show a profound understanding of the importance to working together with all parties involved in conference interpreting assignments;
- Show competence in delivering services in all modes of interpretation, carry out post-conference performance analysis and work out ways of further improvement.

Final Examination

Assessment Type ¹: Examination

Indicative Time on Task ²: 1 hours

Due: Week 14

Weighting: 40%

Students are required to perform consecutive and/or simultaneous interpreting in the conference interpreting booth on video clips that will be selected from those students have prepared and practiced on throughout the semester. Individual performance will be marked with marking rubrics that are made available to students via iLearn at the beginning of the unit.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate sound knowledge of various kinds of conference interpreting equipment and their usage, conference procedures, requirements, genres and settings and parties involved in conference organizing;
- Apply linguistic, cultural, psycho-cognitive and communicative skills, strategies and knowledge to solve various problems and cope with challenges arising before, during and after conferences are held;
- Act as a professional and ethical interpreter in dealing with different situations related to conference interpreting and show a profound understanding of the importance to working together with all parties involved in conference interpreting assignments;
- Show competence in delivering services in all modes of interpretation, carry out post-conference performance analysis and work out ways of further improvement.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Materials used for this unit are largely selected from the Internet in general and YouTube and Chinese websites in particular. The learning and teaching strategies used are mainly through face to face interaction between lecturers and students. Additionally, students will be also encouraged to leverage iLearn for communication and participate in group discussion, peer evaluation and group research project for interpreting assignments.
