Unit description

This unit explores the complex relation between technology and culture. The impact of digital and networking technologies on everyday cultural practices and forms of expression is examined with reference to their production, use and circulation. The cultural and social implications of digital and network technologies are studied and broad social, political and cultural issues regarding technology are considered in the specific context of creative expression, communication and representation.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO2: develop an expanded knowledge of the history of art and technology.

ULO1: understand a range of theories about technology and society.

ULO3: appreciate and evaluate the complex relationship between digital networked technology and culture.

ULO4: assess contemporary art, media and network culture.

ULO5: Relate ideas and evaluate concepts in aesthetics

ULO6: Develop a range of critical and creative thinking attributes

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update
