Unit description

This unit is a bridge between business and information technology and will equip the students with knowledge and skills required to lead and manage big data and data science projects for organisations. Specifically, the unit focuses on data science development practices and the underlaying big data applications, on both strategic and operational levels.

More importantly, this unit focuses on transforming business processes through big data and data science, the impact on companies' IT infrastructure, the use of resources to conduct data science workstreams, and identifying the necessary technological underpinnings of big data ecosystem.

The unit is especially tailored for MBA students and business managers with a primary focus on managerial discussions surrounding big data employment and decision making using big data and analytics insights within large companies. The technical aspect of the unit is on a level comprehensible and applicable by MBA students who do not necessarily possess technical training in big data software applications.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO2: Explore Data Science theories, methodologies and tools and their practical applications to solve real life business problems.

ULO1: Develop a broad understanding and knowledge of the Big Data ecosystem and its applications within the context of managerial decision-making processes.

ULO3: Use tangible and intangible resources to gain insights from large and versatile sets of data and understand the additional requirements needed.

ULO4: Apply and/or customise big data and data science solutions to various business contexts.

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.
