Unit description

This unit presents critical readings and specific case studies that are useful in developing individual research interests around the broad topic of managing creativity. Topics covered may include: how to be more creative, divergent thinking, artist management, creative entrepreneurship and startups, leadership, creative conflict and dispute resolution, the dark side of creativity, promoting creativity in education, and advocating creativity through cultural policy. This unit will enable students to better navigate and critique contemporary developments in the creative and cultural industries.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: apply creative thinking to create new knowledge concerning the management of creativity.

ULO2: synthesize and summarize disciplinary literature and use key ideas to produce collaborative creativity in individual and/or group work.

ULO3: research the creative industries and analyse the arguments and debates within a broad historical context.

ULO4: promote and present creative ideas in various verbal and written forms and scenarios.

ULO5: apply disciplinary knowledge in the development of creative projects.

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.

Find out more about the Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) and potential impacts on staff and students

General Assessment Information

Assessment standards

All written assessments are to be submitted via Turnitin on iLearn. Please see the unit iLearn site for more information.

Assessment standards in this unit align with the University's grade descriptors, available at: <https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policies/assessment>

Rubrics are used for all assessments and are available on iLearn.

Feedback

Feedback on assessments and student learning and performance will be provided in a range of ways. Students will receive formal individual feedback on their performance in assessments in the form of general comments, rubric and in-text comments attached to assignments marked in Grademark/Turnitin. Students are encouraged to make use of tutorials as opportunities for feedback from the tutor on works in progress. Marks are made available in the Gradebook function in iLearn.

LATE PENALTIES

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.
