Unit description

Media and social media dominate our political, social and cultural landscapes. This unit investigates their multilayered dynamic by incorporating a range of disciplinary and/or interdisciplinary approaches within media, communications, cultural studies and media arts. It surveys approaches to media and representation in the broad media and communications discipline. A section of this unit specifically addresses issues in social media. Students will explore how academic research can be utilised to study a rapidly evolving cultural reality and technological infrastructure.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: demonstrate a coherent knowledge of the principles, methods and concepts within a discipline area.

ULO2: develop and demonstrate a high level of oral, written, and discipline specific communication skills.

ULO3: communicate research principles and perspectives situated in a disciplinary area.

ULO4: apply informed and logical judgments to the arguments of others.

ULO5: synthesize and apply ideas to new contexts.

Assessment Tasks
